Dag Pressed For Results Of Suez Talk

U.N. Sources Seeking Details of Conference With Nasser in Cairo

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP) — U. N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold returned to New York today for a busy round of conferences with diplomats anxious for news of his Middle East talks with Egyptian President Nasser.

Hammarskjold refused to answer newsmen's questions but read this brief statement to them:

"When I left New York on Tuesday of last week, I went to have informal exploratory talks. I have had such talks in Cairo and only in Cairo. My talks in Cairo reached a point at which I felt it would be better to return to New York to continue similar talks in the United Nations. I hope the talks in Cairo will prove helpful, and that the talks here will also be useful."

Believes Dag Convinced

In Cairo, meanwhile, Nasser's chief political aide, Wing Cmdt. Ali Sabry said in an interview that the Egyptian government "believes Hammarskjold is convinced of the soundness" of Egypt's position on the Suez Canal. Sabry said Egypt would allow no foreign supervision whatsoever of the canal's operation.

Aides said one of Hammarskjold's first appointments would be with U. S. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge and that he would lunch with Canadian Foreign Secretary Lester B. Pearson and Norwegian Ambassador Hans Engen, both of whose nations are members of the secretary general's seven-nation Middle East Advisory Committee.

Hammarskjold was to meet with the full committee at 3 p.m. EST. The other members are Brazil, Ceylon, Colombia, India, and Pakistan.

Diplomatic sources in Cairo said Hammarskjold had reached an oral "gentlemen's agreement" with Nasser for U.N. Emergency Force troops to remain along the Gaza armistice line for the time being.

They said they believed the agreement included a promise from Nasser not to send Egyptian troops into the Gaza Strip immediately and to take no action regarding Israeli shipping in the Gulf of Aqaba.

'Guests' of Egypt

One Egyptian source said UNEF troops were in Gaza "enjoying Egyptian hospitality" and emphasized that more formal arrangements will have to be reached regarding their status. But it also was stressed that Egypt views it desirable to keep the U.N. forces along the border dividing the Gaza Strip and Israel.

The secretary general also brought back word of Egypt's latest proposals for running the Suez Canal.

Nasser was said to be insisting still that all canal tolls must be paid to Egypt, but reportedly was agreeable to setting aside 25 per cent for U.N. technical assistance in developing and maintaining the waterway and 5 per cent to compensate stockholders of the old Suez Canal Co.

An Egyptian circular issued after Hammarskjold left Cairo said British sterling and French francs would not be accepted as payment for canal tolls. It said Danish, Norwegian, Swedish, Belgian, Dutch, Italian or German money would be accepted if it was freely convertible in the European Payments Union.

Assembly Bill On Delinquent Action Studied

Move Would Make Parents Responsible For Child's Behavior

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—If your neighbor's youngster got in a jam recently, whose fault was it—the parents' or the child's?

The Ohio Senate votes today on a bill which would place the blame on the parents.

The bill allows every youngster one fall from grace.

After that, things get tougher.

Parents of a child delinquent more than once could be charged with contempt of court. On top of that, parents of a child found guilty of a second delinquent act could be required to forfeit a $500 bond to pay for any damages caused by the child's vandalism.

The bond which a court could order forfeited would be posted when a child is placed on probation for his first act of delinquency.

Juvenile Courts Approve

The bill goes to the House if the Senate passes it. It would apply to all parents except foster parents. It has the backing of the Juvenile Court Judges Assn. of Ohio, the Legislative Committee of the Ohio Assn. of Chiefs of Police and others.

Here's how the proposed law would work: If it appears at a child's delinquency hearing that his parents have failed to exercize "reasonable parental control," the court can order the parents to subject the child to such control in the future.

After that, any delinquent act by the child would present an open-and-shut case that the parents have violated the court order. This would open the parents to a contempt citation. Contempt may be punished by a jail term or a fine—or both.

Passes Without Dissent

The Ohio House was treated Wednesday to a "slick salesman" demonstration to support a bill designed to curb misleading advertising. After the demonstration by Reps. Dailey R. Turner (R-Seneca) and Robert F. Groneman (R-Hamilton), the House passed the bill 132-0 and sent it to the Senate.

The "pitch" by Turner and Groneman featured sewing machines and storm window models. They told how salesmen first show inferior merchandise, "blow it down" to the customers, then offer "better merchandise" at far higher prices.

RECEIVES TELEGRAMS. Holding congratulatory telegrams, actress Ingrid Bergman smiles for photographers after learning that she had won an Oscar as the best actress for her performance in "Anastasia." The star took sleeping pills before she went to bed in her hotel room in Paris late Wednesday and slept right through the Academy Awards. She said she was determined she would not worry herself sick with suspense. (UP Telephoto)

Brynner Voted Best Actor

Bergman Year's Top Film Actress

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Ingrid Bergman, who exiled herself from Hollywood eight years ago amid scorn and scandal, said today that she is "delighted and very happy" that the movie industry has given her its highest honor.

The 42-year-old Swedish star won the Academy Oscar at its 29th annual awards presentation Wednesday night. The gold award was for her portrayal of the bewildered pretender princess in "Anastasia."

Yul Brynner won the top-actor award for "The King and I" and "Around the World in 80 Days" was acclaimed the best picture of 1956.

Expresses Delight

Miss Bergman, in Paris, could not at first be reached when the news that she had won her second Oscar arrived just before dawn. Later, she expressed her delight and said she was especially glad that Brynner had received an award. She said, "We became very good friends" when they co-starred in "Anastasia."

Winners of supporting-player awards were Dorothy Malone, as a sexy Texan heiress in "Written on the Wind," and Anthony Quinn, as eccentric artist Gauguin of "Lust for Life."

Ingrid was the wife of a Beverly Hills surgeon and the mother of his daughter when she went to Italy and became the mother of a child by Italian director Roberto Rossellini. She later married him.

"Anastasia," which marked her return to American films, had a European locale. Miss Bergman asked onetime co-star Cary Grant to accept her Oscar in case she won.

Won Oscar in 1944

She won an Oscar in 1944 for "Gas Light."

A top studio executive who asked not to be identified said Wednesday night that he tried five years ago to cast Miss Bergman in a film, but encountered so much industry pressure he had to drop the plan.

"Now that Hollywood has awarded her its highest honor," he added, "I know that all is forgiven, that she will be welcomed back to Hollywood by the industry —and, I'm sure, by the public."

George Stevens received the best-director award for his sweeping portrayal of a Texas oil family in "Giant." He won the 1951 directorial Oscar for "A Place in the Sun."

Dynamic producer Mike Todd, accepting the best-picture award for "Around the World in 80 Days," his first picture, said, "This is especially wonderful for me because it's my first time at bat."

Quinn Really Surprised

Quinn told reporters he was so surprised at his victory that:

"I feel just like Harry Truman."

In an acceptance speech which Miss Malone said later she couldn't recall, she dedicated her Oscar to her 16-year-old brother, Bill Maloney of Dallas. A lightning bolt killed him in 1954 on a golf course.

Brynner, 41, born on the island of Sakhalin near Siberia of Mongolian and Romanian parents, won his Oscar in his second starring picture. The shaven-headed actor accepted the award from wild-haired Italian star Anna Magnani.

Plans Studied To Ease Nasser's Stand on Suez

CAIRO (AP) — Western governments will find it virtually impossible to turn the Suez Canal into an idle ditch by building more pipelines and supertankers.

Military, diplomatic and economic pressures have not shaken Egyptian President Nasser's grip on the strategic waterway. Some Western leaders are advocating all-out development of alternative routes to minimize Nasser's ability to blackmail the world through his control of the canal.

3 Schemes Proposed

So far, three schemes have been proposed:

1. A pipeline through Turkey to the Mediterranean for oil from Iraq, Iran and the Persian Gulf.
2. Pipelines across southern Israel from the Gulf of Aqaba to the Mediterranean.
3. Building more supertankers so large they can take oil around Africa as cheaply as conventional tankers haul it through the Suez.

But the Western demand for Middle Eastern oil is increasing at such a pace that even with this competition the Suez Canal will be a busy trafficway for many decades to come — at least until atomic energy begins to play a major role in powering industry.

Need for Alternatives

Even without the threat of hostile Arab action, some alternative routes must be developed over the next decade to prevent the Suez becoming a bottleneck, unable to cope with heavily increasing traffic.

Oil shipments from the Middle East to the West are expected to double in the next 10 years. In 1955, last full year the canal was in operation, 110 million tons of Middle Eastern oil went to the West. By the late 1960s this is expected to increase to over 250 million tons.

Of the 1955 total, only 65 million tons went through the Suez

Road Program Includes Four Projects in County

The State Highway Department today announced four Marion County improvement projects which are part of the department's 1½ billion dollar construction program for the next 2½ years.

They include improvements of U.S. Route 30-S near the Morrow line, Ohio 203 southwest of the city, Ohio 739 near Green Camp, and relocation of Ohio 95 between LaRue and New Bloomington.

CONTINUANCE OF the U.S. Route 23 improvement from the Delaware Reservoir to Waldo is on the department's list of advanced engineering projects. The highway will be made four lanes from an additional length of 5.4 miles. Work on widening the highway from two to four lanes is now in progress between Delaware and the reservoir.

The highway department today mailed copies of its new program to its 12 engineering divisions. The program runs from the first of the year to July 1, 1959.

It also mailed copies of the program for advance engineering, right-of-way and construction for a later period.

THE PROGRAMS, announced several days ago by Gov. C. William O'Neill, call for spending about one billion dollars by mid-April. The 1959-61 program calls for an outlay of nearly 1.6 billion dollars as outlined by the governor previously.

Many division engineers will get project breakdowns Friday, but some may not have them until Monday, the department said.

The Route 30-S program in Marion County will cost an estimated $1,000,000. It covers a two-mile stretch near the Morrow line and includes a grade separation between the highway and New York Central Railroad. It calls for a

McClellan Recesses Senate Hearing After Blasting Union Chief

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senate rackets probers turned today from public to private checking into their charge that Teamster President Dave Beck misappropriated $320,000 of union funds.

While Beck headed homeward to Seattle, Senate staff investigators dug for details that he had refused to provide on grounds his answers might tend to incriminate him.

Beck, head of the nation's biggest labor union, left the witness stand Wednesday a wilted Fifth Amendment witness facing possible contempt of Congress action.

'Not Through Yet'

"We are not through with Mr. Beck," Chairman McClellan (D-Ark) of the special Senate committee conducting the inquiry told reporters. "He will be a matter of continuing interest to the committee and further testimony may be desired."

McClellan recessed the hearings indefinitely Wednesday after accusing Beck of "flagrant . . . disrespect for honest unionism," "arrogant contempt" for members of his Teamsters Union and "utter contempt" for the committee.

Beck declined comment on McClellan's tongue lashing.

He told the committee he "will be able to come out of this clean and white 100 per cent" if he gets a chance to testify in a court. He said he expects to do so because of his income tax troubles with the Internal Revenue Service.

Won't Attend Meeting

Beck said he would not attend a meeting of the AFL-CIO Executive Council, which has been called Friday to consider his repeated use of the Fifth Amendment's protection against self-incrimination. A code of ethics adopted by the council early this year calls for expulsion of any labor official who uses the amendment to avoid answering questions about union affairs.

McClellan announced he expects about a two-week recess before the committee resumes hearings.

Seek American Woman

Troops Closing In On Bandits in Iran

TEHRAN, Iran. (AP) — Government officials said today that troops and police had picked up a paper trail left by a pretty American woman kidnaped by bandit tribesmen who killed her husband and another U. S. aid official.

Government sources said they believed the band of nomads, about 12 in number, had kidnaped Mrs. Anita Huovar Carroll, 35, of Issaquah, Wash., to "sell her on the Arab coasts of the Persian Gulf and the Gulf of Oman."

Troops Closing In

More than 1,000 Iranian troops and police were reported closing in on the bandits fleeing across the Tangeorkheh Desert of southeastern Iran. There was some speculation they might be trying to escape into Pakistan.

Reports reaching the capital from the remote area said the search force had "found little pieces of paper thrown away by Mrs. Carroll as she was forcibly taken away." The reports said the hunters found the paper trail very useful in their pursuit.

The dead Americans, according to Iranian officials, were Mrs. Carroll's Husband, Kevin, 37, a Point Four area development adviser for Kerman, Iran, and Brewster A. Wilson, 35, of Portland, Ore., a regional specialist for the Near East Foundation and a contractor in Iran for the International Cooperation Administration.

Shah Orders Action

Gen. Alinaghi Golpiri, police commander in chief, said 700 gendarmes, 400 soldiers, and about 10 camel-borne troops on direct orders from Shah Mohammed Reza Pahlevi were moving in on the bandits. These forces were converging in three columns from north, west and south through rugged desert country in southeastern Iran, near the Pakistani border.

"A trace has already been found by a unit which started from Tangesorkheh eastward," Golpiri said. "If not already arrested, I very much hope the bandits will be taken within the next 48 hours."

Iranian officials gave this account of the attack:

Bandits Close In

The Carrolls and Wilson were driving in a two-jeep party from Iranshahr to Port Chabbar, on the Gulf of Oman. They were ambushed by the bandits Sunday night near the village of Khash but held off their attackers for a time with pistol fire.

When the Americans' ammunition ran out, the bandits charged in, knifing Carroll, Wilson, and two Iranians in their party to death. No trace was found of Mrs. Carroll.

The bodies of the two Americans and two Iranians, stripped of valuables and papers, were found by police on a routine patrol and taken to Zahidan, 90 miles north of the ambush scene and some 700 miles southeast of Tehran.

Police Seek Factory Owner; Explosives Were Stored Illegally

MEXICO CITY (AP) — Rescue workers dug through a wrecked block of rubble today seeking more victims of two explosions in a fireworks factory that left more than 100 Mexicans dead or injured. Police hunted the factory owner for questioning.

Eleven bodies — four of them firemen—had been recovered late Wednesday night. A hundred persons were hospitalized. Many were not expected to live.

Second Blast Occurs

Most of the casualties resulted from the second blast, which came as hundreds of curious neighbors watched firemen fighting the fire after the first explosion. Because it was lunchtime, the factory in a poor residential district — apparently was empty.

Police said they wanted to question Antonio Joyas Chavez, owner of the factory. Officers said his adjoining warehouse was illegally filled with dynamite and other explosives.

The factory was less than a mile from Mexico City's International Airport and many windows in airport buildings were shattered.

The sound of the two explosions could be heard over the noise of noonday traffic in the heart of the city five miles away.

Official Version

Authorities gave this account:

Nicolas Lome Munoz, a watchman, saw smoke curling from the factory, located on the Mexico City-Puebla highway which passes the airport, shortly before noon. He told his wife to call firemen and then tried to halt the spreading flames with buckets of water. The woman was unable to find a telephone.

The first explosion occurred at noon, leveling the plant and damaging nearby buildings. The blast killed the watchman, hurling his headless body 90 feet onto the highway.

Firemen from the airport rushed to the factory and sought to halt the racing flames. Hundreds of curious flocked to the scene and milled around watching the firemen.

Warehouse Explodes

Fifteen minutes later the warehouse exploded with a roar that could be heard for miles.

Four firemen, a policeman and five spectators were known to have died in the second blast. Ambulances and police converged on the area and began moving the injured to hospitals in relays.

List of Voters Totals 15,963

With registrations closed for the May 7 primary election, there are 15,963 qualified voters in Marion, according to election board officials. In all, 51 voters registered Wednesday ahead of the 4 p.m. deadline, bringing the total number of registrants since the November election to 105.

The number of persons who registered since November is "very small," board spokesmen said today. They point out, however, that the forthcoming election involves only Marion City residents, and not all of them.

Since there are no contests in the Democratic party for citywide posts, a citywide primary is not required. Democrats will vote only where there are contests—in the first four wards.

There are citywide contests in the Republican party, however, and the Republican primary will cover the entire city.

In the last off-year primary election—1955—there were 13,688 registered voters. The trek to the polls, however, was somewhat discouraging, election board spokesmen noted. Only 1,556 Republicans and 1,194 Democrats actually cast ballots, a total of 2,750 persons.

Backbone of State Department

Foreign Service Officer's Job Tough

By BEM PRICE

WASHINGTON (AP) — Fred Sacksteader was vice consul of the United States at Lyon, France, in 1955.

Until Sept. 1 of that year, life had been fairly routine — visas, import-export licenses, looking after lost or wayward Yanks.

But on that day Sacksteader, now serving in Washington, had an opportunity to demonstrate the payoff of the State Department's careful selection of each Foreign Service officer, this government's eyes, ears, right arm and backbone overseas.

Third of a Series

Lyon, a heavy industrial center, was subjected to a severe storm. Hailstones shattered nearly every skylight in town. Millions of dollars worth of machinery was exposed.

SACKSTEADER said in an interview, "The consul was out of town when I got a call from the French asking if we could contact our military and obtain canvas tenting for covers.

"We started an airlift of tents and tarpaulins. Then we hauled it in by truck. In all we provided about 500,000 square feet of canvas. In Lyon it was a Page 1 story. The tone of those stories was that 'other countries may talk of what they do for us. The Americans act.'"

Often humdrum, the life of an FSO does have its dramatic—and dangerous—moments. Since the department was founded in 1789 some 75 FSOs have lost their lives, some in earthquakes, some in shipwrecks and some by bullets and bombs.

ON NOV. 1, 1948 the Bamboo Curtain descended before the American consulate at Mukden, China, headed by Angus Ward. The staff was imprisoned, threatened, accused of being spies and finally deported. Ward himself was beaten by a Chinese servant trying to curry favor with the Communists. Despite 28 days of intensive questioning, Red-style, none of the staff members cracked.

In the State Department's command setup, which closely parallels that of the armed services, the FSO is under constant scrutiny. His personnel folder is examined by experts yearly. If he is classed with the bottom 10 per cent in proficiency for three consecutive years, he is fired.

His beginning salary is between $4,300 and $5,350 a year, depending upon marital status and background. He can look forward to promotion about every two or three years and possibly the title of career minister at a salary of $17,500. If he becomes a career ambassador his salary will be $20,000. The job of an FSO is varied.

The consular and embassy staffs in Italy provided housing and cars for Americans evacuated from Egypt at the height of the Suez crisis, even supplying dinners out of their own pockets and often in their own homes.

Last year 12,595 young Americans applied for FSO jobs and of these about 5,500 actually took the extraordinarily stiff written and oral examinations. Only 20 per cent of those making top grades were selected.

Farmers Still Thrifty

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Agriculture Department says the nation's farms still are rich with thrifty housewives.

Surveys show, it says, that nearly all farm families continue home canning of fruits and vegetables despite the availability of quick frozen foods of these kinds at grocery stores. It estimates that 40 to 50 per cent of city homemakers do some canning.

Easy Carpet Cleaning Discovery Hailed

What is said to be the easiest and "cleaningest" rug cleaner, known as Blue Lustre, is available after years of research.

Blue Lustre leaves no foreign residue to cause rapid resoiling. The pile is left open and fluffy as the colors spring out like magic. So easy to apply with a long handle brush (like playing shuffleboard) and is safe for all types of carpets.

Use Blue Lustre to clean the entire carpet or remove spots and traffic lanes. It's economical as ½ gallon of concentrate cleans three 9 x 12 rugs.

Close Eyes and Point

Sen. Bricker has asked Ohioans to tell him where they would like to cut the federal budget. Although most of us lack direct knowledge of federal spending, Sen. Bricker thinks some of his constituents — particularly those who work for the federal government—may have first-hand information.

It is a sound idea, as far as the first-hand information is concerned. Whether or not it will be relayed to Sen. Bricker, especially by a federal employe, is something else. But the information is there.

Edwin A. Lahey and David Kraslow of the Chicago Daily News staff in Washington recently plowed through the 1,249 pages of the budget, to see what they could find. They found it was possible to close their eyes and point, to pinpoint items that could stand re-examination.

One item is in plain sight of every congressman—assorted flunkies who are appointed to stand around in uniform and draw the kind of pay for being alive that would look like higher-echelon pay out where the work begins.

Sooper-dooper limousines for officials who can well afford to buy their own cars like other taxpayers, statues that no one wants, special commissions to do special things that no one is interested in, multi-million-dollar buildings to keep more bureaucrats shuffling paper in, piles of strategic materials to subsidize money-grubbing special interests, research specialists who never find anything that someone else could not find at non-government expense, thickly-padded travel allowances — things like these are a dime a dozen.

But they are peanuts—

Because the place where the big money could be saved is in national security, international affairs and finance and veterans' services and benefits, accounting for 70 per cent of all proposed federal spending.

All the money that could be grubbed out of the budget a few millions at a time could be piddled away in one giant snafu over guided missiles. All the fringe benefits that could be clipped off the high cost of running the regular government could be swallowed at a gulp by one blooper in the design of one of the new weapons the militarists are always discarding because they become obsolete before they are finished.

The entire saving of raising the first-class mail rate to the point where it should be, to be in ratio with the cost of other services, could be frittered away by one gang of foreign-aid do-gooders saving people who don't want to be saved with the taxes of Americans who did not particularly want to save them.

There is no real mystery about budget-cutting. When the rest of us do it, we do it where it hurts. That is where the federal government would have to do it, too, if it took budget-cutting seriously.

Unkindest Cut

President Eisenhower's press - conference defense of his $71.8 billion budget Wednesday pulled the string on his party's congressmen so abruptly they cannot be blamed for anger.

They had been assuming that budget-cutting was party policy.

Treasury Secretary Humphrey had said on Jan. 15 there were a lot of places in the budget that could be cut and he thought a lot of people would start cutting.

He is President Eisenhower's friend; his words were taken seriously.

On Jan. 23, President Eisenhower, himself, backed up his secretary of treasury. He said he was "in complete agreement" that the budget should be cut.

So Republican congressmen, fearing they might be taking their political lives in their hands, started to hack away at the executive budget. To their astonishment, budget-cutting proved popular. They began to hear favorably from their constituents. By this week, popular opinion seemed to be running so heavily in favor of lopping off $5 billion or more that Hopeful Henrys were murmuring about tax-cutting.

All it would have taken at this juncture would have been an encouraging word from the White House to start a retrenchment movement in Congress, to taper off easy-come-easy-go spending in Washington.

The encouraging word was not forthcoming. Instead, President Eisenhower left budget-cutters on a political limb by defending his $71.8-billion budget against the accusation that it was full of fat and feathers that could be taken off with no damage to the carcass.

From now on, budget-cutting will be a fight inside the Republican party, just as it has been a fight inside the Democratic party for half a generation.

We can foretell with certainty where the majority of taxpayers, regardless of party, will take their stand. President Eisenhower has let taxpayers down just as hard as he has let down the Republican congressmen who took him at his word the first time.

State Department employes are required to turn in the watches King Saud gave them. It's often been said that these foreign countries which want our money wouldn't give us the time of day, and this explains why—there's a law against it!

Black Eye for Unions

By David Lawrence

Beck Will Be Judged in Court of Public Opinion

Dave Beck, head of the Teamsters Union, has a legal right to avoid giving testimony that could be used against him in a future trial but in the court of public opinion he is bound by a moral obligation to make full disclosure of what he has done with the funds entrusted to him by his labor-union members.

Lawrence

The question of whether the Fifth Amendment implies guilt and whether, since it is a constitutional right, anyone should be condemned for invoking it has stirred up a lot of controversy in recent years, largely because so many Communists or persons suspected of Communist affiliations have refused to testify before Congress about such matters.

They plead the Fifth Amendment because it gives them the privilege of remaining silent lest what they say be used against them in some future court proceedings.

The so-called "liberals" have been consistently defending the use of the Fifth Amendment as something that should not be deprecated when it is invoked. Their argument is that a man might or might not be guilty of the things which are suspected.

He may plead the Fifth amendment, for instance, because he is really guilty or he may plead it because he doesn't want to be hauled into court and forced to expose himself to the adverse publicity of a trial.

WHAT SEEMS to have been overlooked in the Communist cases is that an American citizen owes an obligation to help his fellow men deal with the menace of subversion and espionage involving the society of the republic.

If he puts his own convenience above the welfare of the country itself and refuses to tell about other persons who are guilty—even though he himself isn't—he is not fulfilling the highest purposes of his citizenship.

There is, of course, no question here involving communism in the case before the Senate committee investigating labor-union rackets.

Dave Beck has long occupied a position of trust in his union. He has been allowed to handle many hundreds of thousands of dollars of the funds of his members, checked off their wages each week.

When he insists that there is adequate machinery inside his own union to render judgment on what he has done with various sums about which the senators asked him, he is passing the buck to fellow union officers who are under his control or influence.

A labor union is a quasi-public institution. It acts for many citizens who have a right to expect the most scrupulous care in handling their money.

MANY UNION leaders who recognize this principle are today openly denouncing the attitude of Dave Beck. It is likely that the executive board of the AFL-CIO, of which Mr. Beck is a member, now will suspend him from that post as long as he refuses to make complete disclosure and fails to answer to the public the queries that have been directed to him about what happened to the funds placed in his care.

Dave Beck, as an individual, of course, will find considerable comfort in a book about the Fifth Amendment written in 1955 by Dean E. N. Griswold of the Harvard Law School School and widely espoused by the "liberals." Dean Griswold says:

"A person may fear and honestly fear the risk of prosecution even though he knows he has committed no crime. He is entitled to claim the benefit of the privilege in such a case and an inference that he has committed a crime is simply wrong. . . .

"It may well be, as has been said by high authority, that the Fifth Amendment protects against prosecution for crime, but it cannot protect against the obvious inference which would be taken by any thinking person.

"I would like to suggest again that in many circumstances that inference is not wholly warranted. A person who thinks a little further about the mater may find that there are many factors in some of these situations which must be taken into account before he reaches any conclusion about the inference he should take."

MOST UNION leaders feel that Dave Beck has given the whole labor movement a bad name and they naturally resent his secretiveness.

The Fifth Amendment may protect Beck as an individual from possible legal involvements but it cannot protect him from the adverse criticism and harsh judgments that will come his way from the labor-union chiefs as well as from the rank and file of the American labor-union movement.

For, whether it is business or labor or any other institution, the few who misbehave tend to besmirch the many who are innocent of wrongdoing and who take seriously the trust bestowed upon them.

To argue merely that wrongful practices have also occurred in some corporations is to condone the situation that has been uncovered in one of the biggest labor unions in the country. Two wrongs can't make a single right.

Conversation Piece

By TRUMAN TWILL

Actually, few people are so hard up for something to say that they must fall back on the weather.

They do not talk about good books they have read lately, either.

They use conversation pieces.

A conversation piece is something far enough out of the ordinary to stimulate interest but not far enough to defy comprehension.

It may be intangible, such as an idea. But it is preferably tangible and touchable. Thus, a melodeon in a parlor is a conversation piece, because most visitors have never seen one up close and will want to examine it and ask questions.

A sports car also is a sound conversation piece, especially if parked within sight and circumstances are suitable for going for a ride.

A man who never has had a full beard and blossoms out in one has a built-in conversation piece, if he cares to talk about it.

A diet, if it has caused a loss of weight, is sure-fire among women. Among many men, the same result can be obtained with golf.

Television is a standard fixture, taking the place formerly held by movies, also in high favor with people who like to describe everything they saw in shadowland.

Health and automobile accidents, including close ones, are threadbare conversation pieces, but good ice-breakers because everybody was sicker than you were, or had a more frightening accident.

Pets are standard. To be sure, there are people who do not care to talk about dogs, cats, birds, fish, horses and white mice, but they are not worth the conversation pieces to bore them to distraction anyway.

Antique furniture is a favorite piece, too. This seems to be the chief reason for its existence.

Politics is in wide use but must be used tactfully, out of deference to the possible presence of irreconcilables who might punch someone in the nose.

Doodads and knick-knacks more than pay for the original investment and the upkeep as conversation pieces.

Juvenile delinquency is another stock item and the subject would cease to be regarded as a national menace if people ever quit talking about it.

No one who knows the conversational ropes leaves conversation to chance. He lines up his conversation pieces like a battery of artillery, gets the range and starts firing.

If no one wants to talk about the elephant tethered in the front yard, they are sure to be interested in the violin playing ghost that lives in the attic, the battered human skull of a murder victim in the show case in the corner, the purple blooper the lady spieler pulled on TV, or the fact the parakeet can recite the chorus of a bawdy song when in a mood for that sort of thing.

What more could anyone want?

Daily Bible Thought

All courage rests on faith. Loyal trust in the Infinite gives men the strength of giants. Sincerity is the key to this goal. "Let us draw near with a true heart in fullness of faith."—Heb. 10:22.

It's a Start

Beck on Dangerous Ground

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON — For a man who tried to make like a clam, Dave Beck made a lot of noise. He ducked behind the Fifth Amendment to keep his mouth shut but insisted on keeping it open the better part of two days.

The result: the roundish president of the Teamsters Union talked more and said less than any man in recent memory. But, except for raising questions about what he wouldn't tell, Beck managed to tell a Senate investigating committee very little.

A witness before such a committee can rightfully use the Fifth Amendment to refuse answers to questions only if he thinks his replies might tend to incriminate him. Did Beck think his answers might tend to incriminate him? "Definitely," he said.

BUT WHERE another witness might mumble the amendment and shut up, Beck persisted on making a long statement, the same one over and over, bringing in not only the Fifth Amendment but also the Fourth Amendment dealing with search and seizure, the first three articles of the Constitution which establish the legislative, executive and judicial branches of government, the committee's authority, and the relevancy of the questions it asked.

Can he get away with his almost blanket refusal to cooperate with the committee which is investigating his handling of union funds? Sen. McClellan (D-Ark), committee chairman, isn't sure and says he will find out.

A MAN CITED by Congress for contempt in refusing to answer questions can, if tried and convicted in federal court, be fined and jailed for a year.

Ordinarily a witness using the Fifth Amendment can't be cited for contempt. But if he tries to choose what question to answer, and what to ignore by using the amendment, he gets on ticklish ground.

Beck did not follow his own rule of no answers 100 per cent. For example: He volunteered the information his union had authorized a 1½-million-dollar loan to the Fruehauf Trailer Corp. which, he said, paid it back in 14 months.

BUT WHEN committee counsel Robert F. Kennedy asked Beck if he himself had ever received money directly or indirectly from Fruehauf, Beck took the Fifth Amendment. Kennedy then asked this double-barreled one:

Was Beck in trouble with the income tax people in 1954 because he had taken $320,000 from the union in the past? And had Beck gone to Fruehauf for $200,000 which he turned over to the union? Beck took the Fifth Amendment.

It is a violation of federal law—the Taft-Hartley Act — for an employer to give money to a representative of any of his employes or for such a representative to accept money from such an employer.

There is no such charge against Beck now. There is no charge against him by the income tax people. In fact, there is no charge of any kind against him at this moment. Beck says he'll come out of all this "clean and white."

But McClellan told Beck "evidence has been developed that you have misappropriated funds" from the union. If so, it would not be a violation of any federal law since there is no federal law covering such an offense.

If there was such an offense, and it could be proved, the only action which could be taken against Beck would have to come under state law, on some such charge as larceny.

Weather Stations at Sea

By THOMAS R. HENRY

A weather navy patrols the North Atlantic. Its ships are U.S. Coast Guard cutters and similar craft of four other nations.

Its job is to watch like a hawk changes in seas and skies which indicate changes in weather.

It is part of the coverage of the entire northern hemisphere which is essential for the accurate weather prediction vital to transcontinental aviation. Before the establishment of this weather navy, meteorological maps of the hemisphere from day to day depended on reports — shared internationally—from land-based observatories, together with those which came sporadically from ships at sea.

Many days this left the major part of the hemisphere, which is covered with water, an almost complete blank so far as weather information was concerned. At the best it was inadequate for the new air age which followed the war.

The weather navy now is being built up from year to year in the face of high costs. New floating stations are being established. Forecasters never can be satisfied with the number of hour-to-hour reports they receive nor the number of locations covered. The most reports, the easier it is to follow weather developments.

It all started during World War II when two coast guard cutters were ordered on this duty by President Roosevelt. At that time, reports from merchant ships and other craft, forced to radio silence, practically had reached the vanishing point.

The U.S. ships on the North Atlantic weather patrol are cutters with special facilities. They average three ships to a station, which has a radius of 10 square miles. Within a radius of 200 miles, however, a ship is considered "on station" because of the need of considerable cruising for launching and following weather balloons.

Weather ships remain on station for approximately 21 days before they are relieved by sister ships. There are four professional observers on each craft. Total personnel, including the crew, is about 100 and cost of maintaining a ship for a year runs near $900,000.

The daily program calls for surface reports every three hours, upper wind observations with pilot balloons every six hours and soundings every 12 hours with radiosondes, the balloon - borne robots which automatically record and radio back to the ships pressure, temperature and humidity of the upper atmosphere.

The program also includes weather reports every three hours as well as data on waves and temperature of sea water at various depths.

Service on the weather ships is hard and adventurous. One rainy night, for example, an observer spent four hours in efforts to raise a radiosonde balloon in the face of a 65-mile gale. He finally admitted failure.

Another has described the days on station: "They don't go around chasing fronts or steaming through lows. They just go out, way out, and sit."

The ships must ride out storms. They cannot run away from them.

'Mis-Guided' Missile Foes

By JAMES FREE

Army guided missile work at Redstone Arsenal, Ala., is running into the same sort of opposition that has plagued the Tennessee Valley Authority for years, according to Sen. John Sparkman and Rep. Bob Jones.

These two live in the heart of arsenal territory. Sen. Sparkman's home town is Huntsville, where Redstone is located. Rep. Jones lives at Scottsboro and Huntsville is in his congressional district.

"In the guided missile field," Sen. Sparkman said in an interview, "The Army has been doing most of its research and development work at Redstone arsenal—and with outstanding success.

"The Air Force, on the other hand, has had most of its development work along this line done by private firms. Some of these firms, spurred by the prospect that the Air Force will be doing a larger share of guided missile development in the future, seem to be putting on the pressure for a Pentagon move to reduce the dominant position of Redstone in this field."

The senator stressed that the move is to lessen Redstone's leadership, relatively speaking, not to curtail the volume of work done there and certainly not to try and stop the Redstone operation.

"I've been assured by top officials of the Defense Department —including Secretary Charles E. Wilson," Sen. Sparkman said, "that they have no notion of failing to utilize all of the huge investment in facilities and highly skilled manpower that is represented at Redstone."

In general, Rep. Jones feels less confident about Redstone's future than does Sen. Sparkman.

Rep. Jones is concerned that, with any reduction in the arsenal prestige and leadership in the missile field, competing private companies may be able to lure away some of the Redstone "team" of missile specialists at much higher salaries.

"They won't care if they pay two or three times what these men are now making," explained Rep. Jones, "for they will simply pass along the added cost to the government."

Both Sen. Sparkman and Rep. Jones feel that Redstone's situation is like the TVA's in that many private companies look on its operation as unfair competition from the government.

The clouds of war keep gathering,
Threats fill the global air,
Hate gives the world a bumper crop,
But let us not despair:
For now the turtle's voice is heard
And Cupid bakes a cake. . .
The Iron Curtain lifts a bit
To let love get a break!
Goosesteeping legions do their stuff,
More A-bombs get a test;
Dark anger is a daily thing
As East glares at the West;
But there's a smile across the earth—
A human note is lent —
As Harold gets his Olga with
No all-out "Red" dissent.
Earth's statesmen huddle worriedly
On issues extra grave;
Mankind beside the abyss stands
As tyrants fume and rave;
Mars gloats and bellows in top form,
But—look!—He staggers some. . .
A simple headline "Boy Gets Girl"
Can daze this tough old bum!
"Warmonger!". . . "Liar!". . . "Despot!". . . "Spy!". . .
Such harsh words fill great halls,
As from a score of countries comes
The sound of bloody brawls. . .
But all at once the world feels good. . .
The Human Touch breaks through
Because a state looks kindly on
Two little words, "I DO!"
Burmuda has a chuckle and
The Mideast grins a bit;
In Asia there is time for smiles
As Cupid scores a hit;
Yes, even Moscow drops "NYET!"
And brighter is earth's mood,
Because this simple message comes:
"To love and wed is good."

News of Other Years

40 YEARS AGO—A German submarine was destroyed in a battle with an armed merchant ship in the barred zone waters off Cornwall, Eng. A Dutch liner at Panama reported the rescue of the crews aboard the steamship and those of five other vessels involved in the sea battle.

Draft dodgers appeared in Chicago among the more wealthy young men, many of whom said they would wait to volunteer until the second draft call. One of the young dandies said he could not decide such a weighty problem without putting it to a vote of his club.

20 YEARS AGO — Norman Thomas, former Marion man and three time candidate for president on the Socialist ticket, reportedly had been awarded a visa by the Russian government to visit that country. His first request had been turned down by Russia. Thomas attributed this to the fact that he was a member of the North American Committee for the Defense of Leon Trotsky, an enemy of the Russian government at that time.

Easter throngs undaunted by a bitter wind, filled Marion churches in what pastors termed the largest outpouring of worshipers in years. Many churches were filled to capacity and could offer only standing room. Several ministers claimed the widespread participation in Easter services was in keeping with the increased interest that year in weekly Lenten services, the Holy Week observance and the Good Friday services leading up to Easter.

A special Easter song service was presented by the Otterbein College Glee Club at the United Brethren Church Sunday afternoon with the public invited to attend.

10 YEARS AGO — Frederick C. Smith of Marion, congressman of the Eighth Ohio District, occupied the speaker's chair in the House of Representatives for the first time in his 10 years of office. He presided over the House when Democrats tried to defeat a Republican sponsored bill reducing individual income taxes.

The Marion County Red Cross campaign to raise $27,000 went over the top with an extra $200 for good measure collected, Clarence Shockney, chairman of the drive, indicated. The money was to be used in support of the agency's activities during the year.

The number of known dead in a mine explosion at Centralia, Ill. reached 78. Meanwhile, 33 remained unaccounted for in the blast which had left 142 men trapped beneath the earth's surface.

Blueberry Roly-Poly Is New Type of Cobbler

Crispy blueberry roly-poly is a tasty new version of double crust cobbler.

The easy - to - make crusts are made from crumbled saltine crackers that add both extra good flavor and crunchy texture.

To prepare the cobbler, use
2 cups finely crushed saltine cracker crumbs (about 24 crackers)
½ cup melted butter or margarine
1 teaspoon grated lemon rind
3½ cups canned blueberries in syrup (2 No. 300 cans)
½ cup sugar
½ teaspoon cinnamon
¼ cup cornstarch
½ cup heavy cream, whipped

Heat oven to 400 degrees F. (moderately hot oven). Roll crispy saltine crackers fine on a sheet of waxed paper with a rolling pin. Measure crumbs, and blend with butter or margarine and lemon rind. Pack half of crumb mixture into an 8-inch square cake pan. Bake at 400 degrees F. for 15 minutes.

Meanwhile, drain berries; pour juice into a saucepan. Combine sugar, cinnamon and cornstarch, and stir mixture into berry juice. Cook slowly, stirring constantly, until mixture comes to a boil and is very thick. Add drained berries. Cool slightly.

Pour over baked cracker crumb crust in bottom of pan. Sprinkle with remaining crumb mixture. Return to oven and bake at 400 degrees F. for 20 minutes, or until crumb topping is golden brown. Cool and spoon into serving dishes. Top with whipped cream. Makes 6 to 8 servings.

DIVIDED — YET UNITED

Every efficient homemaker today is looking for ways to lighten mealtime chores — to cut down serving mileage, to make short work of after-meal cleaning. A sit down table in or near the kitchen for breakfasts, hurried lunches, and after-school snacks is one of the best work saving solutions we know of.

The kitchen eating spot should be as carefully planned as any other area in the home. Colors here should be warm and cheerful to add a note of gay conviviality to casual meals. The decor, of course, should be tied in with the kitchen in spirit, style and colors.

One corner of a large kitchen has been converted into an attractive kitchen-dining spot in the sketch above. An attractive room divider was used to give the effect of two separate rooms. It sets off the eating area yet does not use too much space and allows a free flow of traffic.

Metal furniture is light and easily moved for easy floor cleaning. Table top is burn-and-mar-resistant; plastic chair covers are easily kept immaculate by wiping off with a damp cloth.

Small print wallpaper and cottage curtains match those of the kitchen proper.

You're assured of more than just good looks when you purchase your home furnishings from us. We make sure that every piece we offer you is expertly constructed from the finest materials. We're sticklers for tasteful styling, and for unquestionable value too. So come in today —shop with confidence.

Proposed Curb on 'Leaks' Too Drastic

Wilson Rejects Advice On Military Reporters

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of Defense Wilson rejected today a proposal that reporters be hauled before grand juries if necessary to discover the source of published "leaks" about military information.

The Pentagon chief also turned down as smacking of "censorship" recommendations to limit newsmen to "approved" interviews with defense officials, and to require that those interviews be in the presence of official monitors.

The recommendations were made last fall by a committee composed of Charles Coolidge, former assistant secretary of defense, and four retired generals and admirals.

Study Problems

The department committee was created to study information problems.

When the committee submitted its recommendations, Wilson expressed "serious reservations" about the proposal to summon reporters before grand juries.

Wilson's actions in relation to the report were taken in a series of directives.

Wilson said in turning down the grand jury proposal that there were ample laws and procedures to handle such matters and that in any case the Justice Department has the authority to summon witnesses before grand juries.

Wilson said, however, that the Defense Department had an obligation to find the sources of leaks of military information and had authority to discipline its military or civilian employes as well as to "recommend prosecution of other persons" to the attorney general if the facts warranted.

Would Delay Processes

As for the idea of limiting interviews with military officials to those arranged through the Pentagon's information office, Wilson said that could seriously hamper and delay unnecessarily the flow of information. Wilson also concluded that the compulsory monitoring of interviews "could easily be misconstrued as censorship."

Wilson's directives came, at least coincidentally, at a time when a House committee is hammering at governmental restrictions on the flow of news.

The Pentagon said a report on Wilson's actions was sent to the congressional group which is headed by Rep. Moss (D-Calif).

Wilson issued a directive that will authorize one single official to downgrade and declassify the veritable mountain of classified material in the Pentagon.

The directive said the official, to be appointed later, will concentrate on periodic reviews of information held secret by the military and act to reduce the "accumulation" of classified information.

On the matter of "leaks," another directive authorizes the Defense Department's general counsel to be a watchdog over the military services to prevent leaks and pursue investigations leading to the identification and punishment of officials responsible for disclosing classified information.

The military services were warned in this directive that it is their primary responsibility to plug leaks in their security systems.

All employes of the Defense Department and the military services were directed to report suspicions of leaks or mishandling of classified documents to the department security officer and to notify the Pentagon's security review office whenever any published news item appears to contain classified information.

Work Routine Found To Be Aid to Health

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (INS) — A University of Michigan expert on the problems of the aged says that Dad may not like his daily grind at the office, but it may be doing wonders to preserve his health.

Mrs. Wilma T. Donahue, chairman of the U. of M. division of gerontology, said one of the principal problems of persons who retire is the relief from pressure and routine of business life. This often results in a vague feeling of malaise—a sense that something's wrong, even though no specific symptoms of sickness are present.

She added that, in part, this feeling may be traced to changes in the body's delicate chemical balance. She explained:

"Many of us may awaken in the morning feeling tired and blue, but when we remember an interesting assignment or event that's coming up, we perk up and regain our sense of well-being. The retired person may lack this stumulus and remain in the dumps all day."

From a social standpoint, she continued, the person who retires is cut off from a good deal of income and, equally important, is no longer in a position to enjoy the esteem of his associates at work.

Other significant activities, like raising children, may begin to decline at the same time.

Mrs. Donahue said that the impact of retirement may hit business executives especially hard since their status is changed overnight from leadership of an important majority group to a membership in a minority group whose characteristics lack widespread social approval.

Outside interests, such as participating in civic and voluntary organizations, can be an important help in crossing the retirement hurdle, she concluded.

RAVENNA, Ohio (AP)—The Ravenna Arsenal, which sprawls over 23,000 acres of land along Ohio 5 west of here, has the reputation of being Ohio's safest large plant.

The plant, operated for the government by the Firestone Tire & Rubber Co., has not had a fatal accident since it was reopened under Firestone supervision in 1951. With a work force of up to 1,200, the arsenal has had but three lost time accidents since 1954, but none was connected with explosives.

Jesus Loved Them

By Patrick and Garrison

THE ADULTERESS

"And the scribes and Pharisees brought unto him a woman taken in adultery . . ."
—John VIII:3

The time is early morning, the place an outer courtyard of the temple. The first shafts of sunlight fall upon the topmost towers, stairways, and royal porch that rise magnificently above the white colonnade of Corinthian columns.

Jesus sits surrounded by perhaps a score of people. They are the curious, the confused, the hopeful. He looks deep into their eyes as He tells them of the Truth that will make them free.

Suddenly, as He is speaking, there is a commotion outside the entrance. Several scribes and Pharisees—those crafty enemies of Jesus—rudely shove a woman before them into the enclosure.

She holds back, shielding her face with an arm. Her hair and clothes are in sad disarray; she is trembling and frightened.

Her captors push her brutally forward until she stands before Jesus.

"Master," they say, "this woman was taken in adultery, in the very act. Moses in the law commanded us that such should be stoned: but what sayest thou?"

They hope He will defy the Mosaic law, so they can accuse Him before the high priest.

But Jesus does not answer them. He stoops down and with His finger traces words upon the dusty earth. If the woman was caught "in the very act," then her partner in sin must be known also. Who is he? Among her accusers?

Angrily, they press Him for an answer. He straightens up and looks them directly in the eye.

"He that is without sin among you, let him first cast a stone at her."

There is an embarrassed silence. The accusers' own secret sins return to haunt them like evil spirits. One by one, beginning with the eldest, they slip away, "convicted by their own conscience."

Jesus looks at the woman. He asks her: "Woman, where are those thine accusers? Hath no man condemned thee?"

"No, Lord," she answers, daring to look at Him for the first time.

"Neither do I condemn thee: go and sin no more."

U.N. Surveys Study Tropics Food Problem

PARIS (INS) — The world's lowest standard of living prevails in an area most favorable for the cultivation of food.

A United Nations survey has shown that one-third of the earth's usable land, although warm and rainy, is so plagued by disease, bacterial decay, and soil erosion that it cannot offer even a minimum standard of life to its inhabitants.

Of 15 million square miles classified as "humid tropics" four-fifths are in America, Africa, Australia and New Guinea. The population in these areas never exceeds 10 persons per square mile.

In tropical Asia, especially India and Cochin China, the rate climbs to 21,000 and in the Red River delta of Tonkin the population is 4,000 persons per square mile.

The U.N. Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization pointed out that where the need is greatest, there is very little land available for the growing of food. The heavy rains that contribute to rapid plant growth also flood off the rich top soil. This requires the growing of crops like rice which are in no danger of losing precious soil as they remain under water constantly.

Excessive heat causes bacterial decay so rapid as to prevent the formation of humus essential to plant growth. Moreover, the prevalence of insect-born disease lower the health level to the danger point.

UNESCO plans to convene some of the world's greatest tropical research experts to deal with this problem. Among some of the recommendations to be made will be studies in the classification of tropical soil and the identification of many hitherto unknown insects. Methods of soil conservation and irrigation will also come under discussion.

Three Suffer Injuries In Crawford Mishaps

BUCYRUS — A Bucyrus man and a passenger in his auto sustained minor injuries when the vehicle veered off Route 103, about nine miles northwest of Bucyrus and rolled over into a ditch at 9:50 p.m. Wednesday, highway patrolmen reported in one of two accidents investigated.

The driver of the eastbound car, Thomas D. Schell, 19, received lacerations of the left leg, and the passenger, Edward Roach, 27, of Bucyrus, numerous bruises.

Both were treated at Bucyrus City Hospital and released. Patrolmen said the car was demolished and Schell was cited to appear before Mayor J. L. Sullivan of Bucyrus today on a charge of reckless operation.

A Shelby driver who lost control of his auto in fog at 11:30 p.m. received a contusion of the right temple when the car skidded off Route 96, six miles east of Bucyrus, and hit a telephone guy wire.

Patrolmen said John McKelvy, 51, the driver, was not treated. Considerable damage reportedly was done to his car.

Galion Golden Age Club Holds Third Anniversary Fete

GALION — With its oldest member, Mrs. J. A. Appleman, 94, on the program for a reading, Galion's Golden Age Club, organized and sponsored by the Galion Trouble Clinic, celebrated its third anniversary Wednesday afternoon at First Methodist Church. Ninety members and 15 guests were present.

The club which is recognized as one of the best of its kind in the state, has become a community project in Galion. Miss Jean Plack and Mrs. Paul Durtschi, co-chairmen, conduct the meetings, and are responsible for planning programs for each meeting.

Miss Plack opened the party Wednesday with a poem. She introduced two new members, Mrs. J. L. Wintermute and Mrs. Clara Seitz, and the guests. The program included group singing led by Mrs. Durtschi with Mrs. Charles Tracht at the piano. Two one-act plays were presented by members of the speech class of Galion High School taught by Miss Miriam Sayre. The plays had casts composed of Jerry Trapp, Willie Eichhorn, Jack Debolt, Tom Newell, Janet Sautter, Carol Brush and Kathleen Kehrer.

Mrs. Murral Longstreth and Mrs. William MacAdam with Mrs. Robert Resch at the piano sang several selections.

Twenty-two charter members out of an original 39, were introduced. Two who had never missed a meeting in three years, Mrs. Emma Curfman and Mrs. Erma Foltz, were recognized and later presented with tiered birthday cakes as awards. Mrs. J. A. Appleman, 94, oldest member, had a reading.

Rev. Robert Elliott and Howard Dudley poured coffee, assisted by Rev. Paul Gay, when refreshments were served.

Admits Theft of Tires

CLEVELAND (AP)—A 51-year-old Sears Roebuck & Co. warehouse department manager admitted in a signed statement early today that he took $28,000 worth of tires from the company warehouse, detectives said. Officers said John E. Morrell, Cleveland, explained that he took the tires, a few at a time, over a two-year period by writing false orders for branch stores. He was quoted as saying he gave some to friends and sold others in his neighborhood.

Dayton Man Speaks

Faith Conquers Fear, Real Estate Men Hear

By JOHN ROBSON

"If people admit that they have fear, they will have hope for the future," Glenn Massman of Dayton told about 250 persons at the Marion Real Estate Board's annual dinner meeting at the YMCA Wednesday night.

Mr. Massman, an industrial relations consultant, was the main speaker on the program. His topic was: "It's Your Future—What About It?"

THE SPEAKER began with a concept of the future, comparing it to the darkened inside of a cave as seen from the mouth of the cave. One knows that something is inside, but is not able to see it.

He pointed out that many factors affect the future, one of which is fear. He said a real estate man whose deal has just failed to go through feels fear, though he may not realize it.

Women, the speaker pointed out, call fear "worry." Men don't "worry," they "give things serious consideration" or "become very concerned." There is no difference, Mr. Massman said. It is all fear.

He suggested that fear could be conquered by arranging the letters in the word to stand for faith, enthusiasm, ambition and resourcefulness.

Beginning with enthusiasm, and concluding with faith, Mr. Massman explained how each of the four words could be used in daily living to help conquer fear and lead the normal man to a happy future.

He said many things influence enthusiasm, especially the person's attitude. This can make him look forward to doing a job, or dread being alive, in which case the ultimate ends are despondency or suicide.

THE SPEAKER called ambition the "lost art of America." He said in former times youths were taught individual initiative and given education so they could hold their own position without relying on someonne or something else to keep them going.

"I think it's high time we went back to the things which enabled this country to become great," he declared.

Resourcefulness, the speaker declared, is the ability to draw a plan to reach a goal and then go ahead and reach it despite obstacles which are placed in the way. A person who is able to do that, Mr. Massman said, will become a leader.

Closing on the topic of faith, Mr. Massman said that the individual must have faith in himself, in his own ability to accomplish things and in a Divine Power. He said too many persons have a "jam-type faith," that is faith only when they are in a "jam" and need a helping hand.

ROY HOLDRIDGE presided for the meeting. Music was provided by Mrs. Eve Hunter. The invocation was by Rev. John Searle Jr., pastor of the First EUB Church. Aulton G. Cook, president of the local Real Estate Board, gave the welcoming address and Ralph Howard was the toastmaster.

Mr. Howard introduced the board members who planned the dinner: Harold Cook, Joe Davis, James Culver, Wilson Jones and Harold Slack; the officers of the board, Mr. Cook, Harry F. Kaelber, vice president, and Lowell Douce, secretary and treasurer; political office holders and candidates for election this year; local bankers, realtors from Union County, Delaware, Mansfield, Bucyrus and Morrow County; representatives of the local lumber companies, contractors, plumbers, electricians and attorneys; Warren Pittinger of Mansfield, district vice president, and Harold Foster of Ashtabula, president of the Ohio Association of Real Estate Boards.

Mr. Foster spoke briefly and announced the program of the district conference to be held next Wednesday.

Dominic J. Sansotta presented a magic show prior to Mr. Massman's talk.

The dinner Wednesday night was the opening event for the local observance of National Realtor Week which will officially be held March 31-April 6. The local board will join hundreds of similar boards across the country to convey to the public the aims and goals of realtors.

Air Force Recruits Get Break on Calisthenics

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP)—Roller skating and horseback riding have partially replaced those dreaded pushups in the basic training program at Lakland Air Force Base.

Under a new program, trainees can elect to spend 10 hours of the required 28 hours of physical training and calisthenics roller skating to the music of an organ at an air-conditioned rink or they can take a go at horseback riding.

The idea has been greeted enthusiastically by the airmen.

"These boys go for it big," said Heine Mueller, civilian operator of the rink and stable. "Some of them are becoming marvelous skaters." Entire flights sometimes take their skating lessons together.

Needed Funds Found

EAST LIVERPOOL, Ohio (AP)—Twenty city employes notified they would be furloughed Monday because of lack of funds to pay their salaries will remain on the payroll. An unexpected $10,000 windfall in the form of an increase in the city's share of inheritance taxes makes the difference. Columbiana County Auditor I. J. Verndren said the tax share would be $26,000 instead of $16,000 estimated previously.

Saxbe Speaks Against Plan To Tap Lakes

WASHINGTON (AP) — Atty. Gen. William Saxbe of Ohio and Lyndon Spencer, Cleveland, Wednesday testified in a congressional subcommittee against a bill to permit Chicago to take more water from Lake Michigan.

The State Department has asked Congress to put off action on the bill pending completion of discussions with Canada.

Spencer is president of the Lake Carriers Assn. Saxbe told a House subcommittee he was embarrassed to find a governor's meeting to discuss the problem had been called in Ohio without his knowledge.

The meeting, to be held in Cleveland April 12, was called by Ohio Gov. C. William O'Neill. Governors from other states near the Great Lakes, except Illinois, and representatives of port authorities, cities, counties and private institutions adversely affected have been invited.

Saxbe said O'Neill was "in error" not to tell him about it.

He added later, however, that he had talked with the governor by phone and that O'Neill said his failure to tell Saxbe of the meeting was an oversight. Saxbe said O'Neill told him plans for the meeting were not firm when Saxbe left Columbus.

Suit for Money Settled

BUCYRUS—The $333 action for money filed by W. J. Brown of Galion, and the Travelers Insurance Co. of Toledo against Herbert E. Jones of near Ashland has been settled and dismissed, it was announced here today by Crawford County Clerk of Court Mabel Mullen. Terms of settlemen were not disclosed.

The action resulted from a collision between cars, driven by David H. Brown and Jones, on Aug. 5, 1954, in Galion.

Parted in 1907

Divorced 50 Years Ago, Two in 80's Remarried

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—A half century after their first marriage broke up, Mrs Daisy Eye, 32, and Chester Innskeep, 80, are again bride and bridegroom

They were married Wednesday night at the home of their daughter, and they're going back to Delavan, Ill, where they were once childhood sweethearts

It was there they parted in the spring of 1907—parted to remain completely out of touch, to re marry and to live their separate lives until six weeks ago

On Feb 12 Mrs Eye told her daughter, Mrs Robert Thompson "I got a letter today that shook me all up"

The letter was from Innskeep He had learned her whereabouts from a friend in Delavan who was employed at the courthouse The friend told Innskeep he'd seen a letter Mrs Eye wrote about some property she owned in Delavan

"Answer it, mother" advised the daughter, who was only two weeks old when her father last had seen her And the mother did

The result was a reunion at the Cleveland Airport two weeks ago and Innskeep's marriage "to that old gal of mine" with the Rev Paul Kerschner of the First Congregational Church retying the knot

The ceremony was the third for both octogenarians After the 1907 separation, Innskeep stayed in Delavan and married another woman, now dead His divorced wife went to New York, remarried, then moved to nearby Greenfield, Ohio where her husband died 17 years ago

At the apartment of their daughter, where they will remain for a few weeks before moving back to Delavan the bride said she didn't "want a honeymoon trip" She said she just wants to be with Chester again, adding

"We never had a cross word or altercation in our lives, in spite of the fact we were divorced Feuds between our families did that We grew up within six miles of each other went to school and church together, went buggy riding and skating"

Mrs. O'Rourke Wins Homemaking Contest Here

Gets 'Mrs. Marion' Title In Ohio Fuel Gas Competition

Mrs. James K. O'Rourke of 409 Uhler Ave. is the 1957 "Mrs. Marion" and will represent the city and county in the district contest for the title of "Mrs. America" in "cook-off" at Mansfield the week of April 1. The contest is sponsored annually by the Ohio Fuel Gas Co.

Announcement of the winner in the county competition was made today by C. L. Baxter, local manager of the gas company, following the judging Wednesday afternoon at a tea given in the home of Mrs. Herbert J. Schroeder of Leetonia Rd., 1956 contest winner.

The mother of two children, Mrs. O'Rourke is the wife of James K. O'Rourke, sales manager with Aircraft Tools, Inc.

SHE WAS ONE OF five Marion housewives selected for personal interviews after an examination of written applications. Judging was on a basis of personal qualifications, homemaking ability, qualifications and management. Contestants also arranged a table setting, provided a favorite dessert and displayed an article of clothing which they had made.

Other contestants were Mrs. H. R. Heckaman of 204 Hane Ave., Mrs. Chester H. Campbell of 409 Brightwood Dr., Mrs. J. Norman Beidler of 310 S. Seffner Ave., and Mrs. Wayne R. Butterworth of 283 S. Prospect St.

For her table setting, Mrs. O'Rourke chose an Easter theme. Laid with a white cloth, the place setting was Noritake China, a gift from her husband when he was serving with the armed forces in Japan, Navarre crystal and Gorham sterling in a Camellia design. Daffodils in a matching crystal basket carried out the Easter theme.

HER DESSERT was a devil's food cake and for sewing she displayed a costume for her nine-year-old daughter, Patty. The green felt circle skirt was trimmed in black and gold braid and the trim was repeated on the white cotton blouse. For an Easter touch she decorated a white organdy apron with a rabbit and eggs in color.

Assisting Mrs. Schroeder were Mrs. Dee Beisler, floor demonstrator, and Miss Myra Wickline, local "Betty Newton" and home service adviser with the gas company, Mrs. Glenn Evans and Mrs. George Lane. The tea table, laid with a red and white cloth, held an all-white basket of snaps, carnations and iris.

Judges were Miss Madge Cooper, director of women's activities at Station WMRN, Miss Edna S. Dutton, society editor of The Marion Star, and Mayor Gale D. Ireland.

All contestants were presented gifts from the sponsors.

At the district contest Mrs. O'Rourke will compete with winners from nearby communities, all aiming for a chance in the state and national finals. Winner of the state finals wins an expense-paid trip to the national finals at Fort Lauderdale, Fla., for herself and her husband. Prizes will be awarded two runners-up in the state competition and prizes valued at $15,000 await the national Mrs. America.

Mrs. Schroeder, winner of last year's contest, was hostess for the tea in her home on Leetonia Rd. Mrs. O'Rourke will compete for district honors in a "cook-off" to be held at Mansfield the week of April 1.

Senate Okays Extension for Business Tax

Approval by House Seen for 15-Month Renewal of Tariff

WASHINGTON (AP) — Only House acceptance of a Senate amendment was needed today to complete action on a bill to extend three billion dollars of annual business taxes to July 1, 1958.

The House was expected to act during the day to accept the 15-month extension voted by the Senate rather than the one-year limit it had passed. The administration has approved the 15-month provision.

President Eisenhower must sign the bill into the law by Sunday or the rates on corporation income and excise taxes will drop automatically Monday.

Relief Moves Beaten

The Senate passed the bill by voice vote late Wednesday after seven hours of debate in which all attempts to add special relief provisions were beaten.

The moves which got the most support were designed to aid small business. Although they lost, advocates of such relief said today they believed the debate had advanced their cause and that some tax benefits for little businessmen might well be enacted this session.

Sen. Thye (R-Minn), senior Republican on the Small Business Committee, said in a separate interview he had been assured by the White House and Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey an effort would be made to send up some small business relief proposals this year.

Gives Congress More Time

The Senate passed a 15-month extension of the taxes so that Congress would have more time to consider the matter in the 1958 session. Eisenhower had asked a years' extension.

The bill continues the top corporation income tax rate at 52 per cent, instead of the 47 to which it would drop Monday, and keeps in effect the present excise levies on autos, auto parts and accessories, cigarettes, liquor, wines and beer.

In addition to rejecting relief for small business, the Senate defeated proposals to cut the depletion allowance on oil and gas income, and moves to eliminate the 3 per cent excise tax on freight and the 10 per cent levies on passenger fares and domestic furs.

ART CRITIC

BALTIMORE (AP)—As the group walked past a new art school on West 25th Street one woman noticed that the numeral "7" was reversed on the front door. "That is just like modern artists," she said. "They can't even make a "7" right. Academy Director Bernard Perlman came up with the explanation: the transparent glass door had been reversed so it would swing outward, in compliance with fire laws.

AN UNEXPECTED INTRUSION. Watching aghast the untimely and improper entrance of an unexpected roomer is this trio of students who play lead roles in the Harding senior class production of "Arsenic and Old Lace." They are (left to right) Dixie Geddis, Jim Lightner, Sandy Jenkins and Wally Brown. The three-act play will be given in the school auditorium Friday at 8 p.m. Director of the production is Robert Webb. Tickets may be purchased at the door or from any class member.

Vote in House Due on Cut in U.S. Spending

Drive for Reduction In Labor and Welfare Budget Nears Climax

WASHINGTON (AP) — A House drive to cut an estimated 200 million dollars from new appropriations asked for the Labor and Welfare Departments moved into its final stages today.

A coalition of Republicans and Southern Democrats showed no signs of weakening in their effort. In the last two days, they have persuaded the House to cut $14,408,100 from the amounts recommended by its Appropriations Committee.

$118 Million Already Cut

The committee already had chopped 118 million dollars from President Eisenhower's requests for $2,862,502,881 to finance the two big departments and several minor agencies for the fiscal year starting July 1.

The House cuts, voted over the opposition of many committee members, were designed to hold 1958 appropriations generally to their 1957 levels by denying funds for personnel expansion.

Action Still Tentative

Similar amendments to cut from 60 to 65 million dollars deeper were pending as the bill moved toward expected passage.

All the cuts are tentative and subject to possible roll call votes before passage. Rep. Fogarty (D-RI), chairman of the subcommittee which handled the bill, said he will demand the specific votes.

If the House coalition reaches its goal on the pending bill, the House will have cut about 900 million dollars from funds requested in five annual appropriation bills it has considered this year. This would amount to close to 10 per cent on requests for $13,400,000,000 with the biggest bills still to be considered.

None of the House-passed measures has passed the Senate and foes of some of the cuts predicted privately that body would restore many of the House reductions. That has been the pattern in past years.

The Route 739 project calls for a bridge and approaches at Green Camp. It will be one-tenth of a mile long. Costing an estimated $160,000, it is scheduled for 1958.

The Route 95 relocation would involve five miles of roadway between LaRue and New Bloomington, and would eliminate a railroad crossing of the New York Central. It calls for a two-lane pavement with limited access and is scheduled for construction in 1959. The cost is estimated at $700,000.

Liquor Director Robert Krupansky announced the appointment effective immediately.

ANGOLA, Ind. (AP) — Roger H. Snyder, 68, and Mrs. Pearl M. Shaffer, 73, Montpelier, Ohio, his former housekeeper, were found shot to death in Snyder's home at nearby Metz, Ind. last night. State police said Snyder apparently killed the woman and himself.

Orth To Start Long Term in Prison Today

Kenneth J. Orth, 26, of Marion, sentenced to 10 to 25 years in the Ohio Penitentiary Tuesday by Allen County Common Pleas Court Judge Moran B. Jenkins on a charge of armed robbery, was expected to be taken to Columbus this afternoon to begin serving his sentence.

Orth, who was found guilty on the charge in connection with a holdup - slaying in Lima's G&G Cafe the night of Dec. 10, 1954, was to be taken to Columbus by Allen County Sheriff Clay T. Gotterman as soon as the warrant was received from Judge Jenkins.

James C. Blair, attorney for Orth, said this morning he had 30 days in which to file an appeal of the conviction and sentence and added that he planned to do so "within the next 10 days." Blair probably will file his appeal on grounds of "double jeopardy," claiming that inasmuch as Orth was acquitted of the murder charge in connection with the robbery, he also was technically absolved of any part in the holdup.

Orth was formally charged with the murder after an alleged accomplice, Duane Packer, also of Marion, turned state's evidence after his arrest following an ill-fated attempt to rob Marion's National City Bank, and named Orth as the gunman who shot down John R. Mooney, 22, of Lima, a patron in the cafe the night of the holdup.

Another alleged confederate, William Swearingen, of Marion, also testified for the prosecution and put Orth at the scene.

Orth, however, subsequently was acquitted by the jury hearing the case. Swearingen later was sentenced to 10 to 25 years in the

Taylor Bound Over in Clark

Pleads Guilty to Theft At Springfield Office

A 33-year-old Marion man, arrested here Tuesday by Marion and Springfield police, has been bound over to the Clark County grand jury under $3,000 bond after pleading guilty in Springfield Municipal Court to a charge of grand larceny.

Ross E. Taylor of 204 Cummins Ave. is accused of taking $4,600 from the Ohio Fuel Gas Co. office in Springfield the night of March 12. He was arrested here after police were tipped off by an anonymous source that Taylor had a large amount of money hidden in his house.

Police, who had started a 24-hour-a-day surveillance over Taylor's activities March 18, reported they found $4,174.90 in various hiding places in his home.

Police teams from Marion and Springfield questioned Taylor nearly seven hours at Marion police headquarters before he admitted the theft at 5:30 p.m., officers disclosed.

Chinese Reds Release Catholic Missionary

TOKYO (AP) — Peiping radio announced tonight that the Rev. Fulgence Gross, a Roman Catholic missionary from Omaha, Neb., had been released in Shanghai after six years' imprisonment and house arrest on spy charges.

Father Gross was released a day ahead of the completion of his sentence. He was arrested March 29, 1951.

Girl, 12, Loves Dogs; Father Is $1,095 Poorer

DETROIT (AP)—A little, blue-eyed blonde of 12 just loved dogs. But her parents wouldn't permit her to own one.

The little girl had lots of friends who liked dogs. Their parents didn't mind, but they just didn't have any.

One after another seven of them became dog owners. Six got Miniature French Poodles, the kind the 12-year-old "just adored." The other got a German Shepherd. All were registered, pedigreed stock.

Wherever the little 12-year-old went she could play with a friend's dog.

That was part of the story police unraveled from a roll of $20 bills that fell out of the 12-year-old's jacket as she romped with a friend's dog. The friend's mother became suspicious.

Police also found that the 12-year-old's father didn't believe in banks just as he didn't in dogs, that he kept his savings in a closet strongbox, and that the little girl had chanced upon the hidden strongbox keys.

The strongbox financed taxi trips to kennels and purchase of $1,095 worth of dogs, with which a little, blue-eyed blonde of 12 dearly loved to romp — at the homes of friends.

COSTLY CROSSING

JACKSON, Mich. (AP) — A traffic count showed that trains at a busy crossing in downtown Jackson block some 1,040,000 cars an average of 624 hours a year. City engineers say the dollar loss in man hours over the years would approximate 20 times what a grade separation would cost.

2-Car Crash Fatal

PIQUA, Ohio (AP)—Mrs. Dorothy Rogers, 35, Conover, Miami County, was killed Wednesday, the highway patrol said, when her car collided with two autos and then crashed over an embankment on U. S. 36 about one mile east of here.

Chevrolet Wins Coveted Manufacturers' Trophy at Daytona Beach as "best performing U. S. automobile"!

Want facts about performance?

Then look at the official figures from NASCAR's* internationally famous Daytona Beach competition for stock cars. Here's what you'll find: Chevrolet, in two weeks of blistering competition, proved itself as America's Number One performance car. Nothing in the low-price field could touch it. No other car, regardless of price, scored such a sweep. And Chevy walked away with the famous Manufacturers' Trophy, hands down!

The 1957 Chevrolet is, by all odds, the most astonishing performer ever produced in the low-price field. Best of all, this superiority isn't limited to just a few extra-cost high-performance models. Every type of Chevy—from the six-cylinder models right up to the 283-horsepower "Super Turbo-Fire" V8's, from the single-carburetor V8's with Powerglide to the stick-shift "270's"—is a championship car.

Philadelphia Story

By Victor Riesel

Late Monday morning a group of men walked into the Monongahela Room of Pittsburgh's Penn-Sheraton Hotel, tightly closed the big doors and cut off the phones. In that group was a man who had been the hero of a grim drama overheard by secret microphones which led to the second set of tape recordings now in the vaults of the Senate racket-busting committee.

VICTOR RIESEL

The word "Hero" is not idly chosen. It is hereby hung on a chap by the name of William J. Brennan of Philadelphia, who flexed not a muscle and frayed not a nerve when, some months back, he heard those tape-recordings played back to him.

Mr. Brennan heard some muscled characters plan to do him violence because he refused to go along with a neat little plan by the combine to use a small coffee shop union in a big money scheme.

The stakes were big—hundreds of thousands of dollars in dues and initiation fees and eventually, welfare fund payments.

-:-

MONDAY MORNING, behind those closed doors, Bill Brennan told some of the story to the group, the Executive Council of the Pennsylvania State Federation of Labor, AFL.

What they did not know then was that the story they heard will push the main line of the Senate probe right through Philadelphia—perhaps even before the Senators open their New York hearings.

Senate strategists are so startled by this second set of tape recordings and what has come out of six intense weeks of investigation by their six-man staff, that they believe the Philadelphia story is more vivid even than what they have dug up in New York.

The Senate probers are still in Philadelphia today, headed by ex-FBI man Leo Nulty.

So the Senate committee may simply postpone the New York hearings to report to the nation what Jr. Nulty's squad, working with Philadelphia's district attorney, Victor Blanc, has discovered.

There, the probe has pivoted upon a tough section of the Teamsters Union which runs a local controlling the delivery of hundreds of millions of dollars worth of food, not only in Philadelphia but throughout the Delaware Valley area itself—serving millions of people.

THIS LOCAL is something called the Produce, Poultry, Fish and Oysterman's Drivers and Helpers, Local 929.

Strong man of the local, wherein competitive muscle is not wanting, is one Shorty Feldman. He has an arrest and prison record long enough to give him solid standing in his social circle. And imagination, too.

Couple this with an urge to conquer new horizons and you reach a point in Mr. Feldman's personal history when he helped some friends get a charter some time ago in the Hotel and Restaurant Employes International Union. Its number is 410 and its potential take runs into the hundreds of thousands of dollars.

Feldman's forays into the coffee shop field via this local were made possible by powerful support in the national teamsters' leadership. And that's what the senators want to trace.

This the probers believe will show a pattern—the use of the power of national teamsters' chiefs to pressure other union leaders into issuing charters to personal friends—or friends of friends.

In this story, Feldman helped get a charter for a band of men, some with criminal records.

Feldman's power comes, of course, from the fact that members of his own teamsters' local control the delivery of millions of dollars of perishable foods daily.

-:-

THUS FELDMAN easily made the connection—and through some long distance phone calls—got the charter from the Hotel and Restaurant Union's national office in Cincinnati.

It was all very merry until they discovered that Bill Brennan, over whose head they had gone, was fighting them.

Brennan was, and is, the chairman of the Hotel and Restaurant Employes' Local Joint Executive Board in Philadelphia and also vice president of the State Federation of Labor.

This attitude of Brennan's vexed some of the men who were building up their own coffee shop domain. They discussed bruising Brennan. But they discussed it over the phone.

Philadelphia District Attorney Blanc intercepted this with a wire tape. The tape was played back to Brennan who recently drove the boys from Local 410.

So once again the Senate hearing room will be echoing to the voice of the combine.

Senate Takes Up Big Water Projects Plan

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate resumes consideration today of a 1½ billion dollar water projects authorization bill against a backdrop of criticism by President Eisenhower at the way Congress sometimes authorizes such public work projects.

Before the Senate was a bill by its Public Works Committee to authorize future appropriations totaling 1½ billion dollars for construction of 105 flood control, navigation, hydroelectric and beach erosion projects.

Included are navigational aid projects for Ohio totaling an estimated $13,510,000. They are: Ohio River near Gallipolis $66,000, Mahoning River's West Branch $12,585,000, and Toledo Harbor $859,000.

In an oblique reference to the measure, the President told his news conference Wednesday in discussing his budget and problems involved in trimming it:

"Take the vast number or the great number of public works that are authorized without proper engineering studies to back them up. Congress authorizes them. Why? It must be for political purposes, because the engineering department has not said they are necessary."

This prompted Chairman Chavez (D-NM) of the Senate committee to retort that projects in the bill "will do just as much for the country and for the economy of the country as the proposed additional office space in the White House."

Hardin Group To Form County Humane Society

KENTON — About 75 citizens, aroused by recent incidents in connection with local dogs, Wednesday night took the first steps toward forming a Hardin County Humane Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children and Animals

The group met at the city hall auditorium and heard Russell C Holm of Lima, president of the Allen County Protective Society, explain the duties and powers of that group Kenton Attorney Charles Lease, explained the difference between a humane society and protective society noting that the humane society is recognized by law and has certain powers, while the protective society has no legal powers.

THE GROUP, on a motion by Philip Herron, Kenton business man, voted unanimously to form a humane society in Hardin County Attorney Burke Smith will work with Mr Lease in taking the first steps to form the society, obtain a charter and set up the organization according to law

As one of the first steps, a planning committee was appointed Members of the committee who were present at the meeting to accept their appointments were Mrs Opal Clay of Ada Mrs Will Martin of Kenton, Mrs Jean Price of Dunkirk and Mrs Alice Lawrence of Alger Named to the committee but not present to accept were Dr H R Johanson of Kenton, county health commissioner Dr Robert Thomas Mount Victory physician and Dr Jesse Curtis and Dr George Pleasant Kenton veterinarians

During the meeting it was explained that the society will have to have a shelter for the dogs picked up It was recommended that the group make connections with a local kennel to house the animals until a shelter could be erected Cost of the shelter was estimated at $4 000 to $5 000

A letter from the National Organization of Humane Societies explained that voting membership dues would be $5 a year per person The group estimated that about 1 000 voting members could be signed up in the county

IT WAS EXPLAINED to the group that the county commissioners have the duty to support the society by appropriating a percentage of the dog license fees to the group It was also brought out that after the charter is granted by the state, the powers of the dog warden will be limited to picking up dogs and turning them over to the society

In addition to its work with dogs the society will also have the duty to prevent cruelty to children and must see that children who are cruelly treated are turned over to the proper law officials, the group was told

The group voted to oppose a proposal now before the Ohio Legislature which would empower certain groups to take animals from dog pounds and humane society pounds for use in experimentation

Braves Sink Redlegs 12-6; Indians Blank Cubs 6-0

Milwaukee Records Sixth Win in Last Eight Starts

By The Associated Press

Manager Fred Haney has said all along that if his pitchers and hitters ever decide to get together the Milwaukee Braves will be mighty tough to beat for the National League pennant.

They missed by only a game last year after frittering away a solid lead in the closing weeks.

And at the start of this season's exhibition games it appeared as if they were up to their old tricks. But they suddenly caught fire and won six of their last eight games

Spahn Stands Out

Wednesday they combined the ingredients that make a pennant contender as they beat the Cincinnati Redlegs 12-6. Warren Spahn allowed only six hits, one of them a homer by Bob Thurman, in seven innings.

The Milwaukee hitters backed up his southpaw slants with 14 hits, including two homers by Joe Adcock—one a grand-slammer—and another by Hank Aaron.

Smoky Burgess hit a grand slam homer for Cinci in the ninth off Gene Conley.

The Braves were not the only ones who got good pitching.

The Detroit Tigers got a three-hit job from Frank Lary and Jim Bunning as they mauled the Brooklyn Dodgers 18-1. Al Kaline hit two home runs and Charley Maxwell, Frank House and Reno Bertoia one each in the 20-hit assault on Sal Maglie, Ken Lehman and Clem Labine.

Yankees Beaten 1-0

Johnny Kucks held the St. Louis Cardinals to four hits as he went the route for the Yankees. But the world champions dropped a 1-0 decision to the St. Louis Cardinals for their second setback by the same score in as many games. A double by Del Ennis and a triple by Hobie Landrith in the second provided enough working margin for Herm Wehmeier and Larry Jackson.

With Bob Lemon hurling the first five innings rookie Stan Pitula the next three and relief expert Don Mossi the final frame, the Cleveland Indians stopped the slugging Chicago Cubs 6-0.

Elsewhere, the New York Giants chalked up their third straight victory and their eighth in the last nine games with a 5-2 decision over the Boston Red Sox. The Chicago White Sox exploded for eight runs in the third inning and a 9-4 victory over Washington with Minnie Minoso getting three hits and Larry Doby and Dick Donovan one homer each. Alex Kellner walked Ed Bouchee home in the 10th inning with the run that gave the Philadelphia Phillies a 4-3 triumph over Kansas City.

Fights Last Night

KANSAS CITY —Willie Vaughn, 160, Los Angeles, outpointed Joey Giardello, 129¼, Philadelphia, 10. (Missouri Athletic Commission may rule bout a "no decision" affair at Thursday meeting)

Dressen Sees Better Season For Nationals

By JOE REICHLER

ORLANDO, Fla. (AP) — Charlie Dressen, the fine little manager, who used to win pennants in Brooklyn but now struggles to stay out of last place with Washington, is as gabby as ever. The only trouble is he doesn't have much to talk about these days.

"We're better than we were last year," Charlie said. "Well, I think we are anyway.

"I think we can win more games," he said, "but I don't know if we can improve our position. Most of you fellows picked us for last place a year ago. Well, we finished seventh. This time we should move up a notch or two. But I don't know whom we're going to beat out.

Sixth of a Series

"We're starting off with the resemblance of a major league team, with promising pitching, a potential home run hitting star in Jim Lemon, three real good catchers, a sound Eddie Yost who was handicapped all last year with infected tonsils, and a confident Roy Sievers who should hit 3 home runs."

Dressen's tentative starting lineup is Pete Runnels, the converted shortstop who hit .310 last season, at first base; Herb Plews at second; Jose Valdivielso or Jerry Snyder at shortstop; Yost, third base; Sievers, right field; Whitey Herzog or Karl Olson in center; Lemon in right; Lou Berberet, Clint Courtney or Ed Fitzgerald, catcher.

Chuck Stobbs (15-15), Pedro Ramos (12-10), Camilo Pascual (6-18), Ted Abernathy (12-16 at Louisville) and Dean Stone (5-7) comprise the starting five.

"Right now our biggest problem is finding a center fielder," said Dressen. "If we can find one who can hit and catch the ball, if we can hit and catch the bal, if we can plug the shortstop hole and if a few of our kid pitchers come through, we'll be all right.

Shift of A's Planned in Tax Battles

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Arnold Johnson, principal owner of the Kansas City Athletics, has warned the A's will move elsewhere or curtail their rebuilding program if Kansas City enacts a 5 per cent municipal admissions tax on professional athletic events.

City Councilman Charles C. Shafer Jr. introduced an ordinance for such a tax at a council meeting last Friday.

"This would prevent us from continuing our fast moving program to give Kansas City a winner," Johnson said at West Palm Beach, Fla., where the A's are in spring training.

"It would leave us with the alternative of curtailing this program or moving the franchise."

Councilman Shafer declared:

"I regret Mr. Johnson's attitude. In my opinion he had never played fair with the city. He expects it to provide him with a multi million dollar stadium so that he may make a substantial profit at the city's expense.

"The first two years, the city received $50,000 from Johnson while it spent over $350,000."

Williams Gets Edge in Votes From Rookies

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., (AP) — Who is the greatest ball player you have ever seen? What is your ambition? Your pet superstition? Do you play a musical instrument? What was your most exciting moment?

Dave Grote, director of the National League's Service Bureau, asks questions like these of each year's rookie crop.

Although this is a National League project, the "best player you've seen" vote went to Ted Williams by a slight edge over Stan Musial. Joe DiMaggio got more votes than Mickey Mantle who tied with Bob Feller. Others mentioned were Ewell Blackwell, Pee Wee Reese, Roy McMillan, Jackie Robinson, Yogi Berra, Josh Gibson, Terry Moore and Enos Slaughter.

Fred Kipp, Brooklyn's knuckleball rookie from Montreal, lives up to the pitcher's creed of talking about hitting, not shutouts.

"My biggest thrill was hitting a grand slam homer in Class B when my folks were there," he wrote. "Needless to say, I am a good hitter." The "good" was underlined twice.

Most players moan about leaving the Yankees, even their minor league organization, but catcher Cal Neeman's greatest kick was receiving news of being drafted from the Yanks' Richmond farm by the Chicago Cubs.

Like many other players, Bobby Henrich, Cincinnati's bonus infielder said "Dad worked with me ever since I was big enough to hold a bat."

Art Schult, now with Cincinnati, told about his strange experience of being booed by his home fans for hitting a home run.

"I was with the Yanks' Kansas City club in the American Association in 1954. We were playing Indianapolis and Herb Score had a no-hit, no-run game with two out in the ninth and two strikes on me. I hit a home run and every base I touched the Kansas City fans booed me louder. It was the only time I've been booed for hitting a homer for the home team."

Two French boxers, Eugene Criqui and Andre Routis, were world's featherweight champions.

JOEY JOLTED. Joey Giardello (left) and Willie Vaughn go into a clinch on the ropes in the 10th round of their nationally televised bout Wednesday night at Kansas City. Giardello, blood streaming from a head cut, lost a split decision. However, a scoring error on the part of the referee may result in a no decision ruling. (UP Telephoto)

McMurray, Thatcher Honored By YMCA's Wrestling Squad

Les McMurray and Bill Thatcher were honored by the Marion YMCA wrestling team recently in a squad meeting following the close of the season.

McMurray was re-elected captain of the squad and Bill Thatcher was selected most valuable wrestler on the team this year as well as co-captain along with McMurray.

Thatcher was selected as most valuable wrestler following one of the most successful seasons any wrestler has ever had at the Marion YMCA. In addition to going undefeated in 13 matches, the rugged 127-pounder pinned every opponent with only two contests lasting longer than two minutes. He succeeded in capturing the 127 pound Ohio-West Virginia crown as a first year man in 1956 and repeated the performance this year in the 133 pound class. Thatcher won the Marion Invitational title at 127 pounds by pinning three opponents in less than a minute to gain the best wrestler award for the five team tourney. He also holds the record along with Clyde Thomas for the fastest pin of the season in 35 seconds. The powerful champion also was honored for the hard work in practices and fine attitude and team spirit displayed during the season.

McMurray, the hard luck wrestler of the season, overcame injuries to capture the Marion YMCA Invitational 157 pound crown and the Ohio-West Virginia Area championship. Due to the outstanding competitive spirit and sportsmanlike conduct of last year's captain the team elected him co-captain along with Thatcher as a vote of confidence.

Bill Bruce also was mentioned as most improved wrestler being a first year man and having done so well against more experienced opposition. Bruce pinned Ross of Zanesville and saved the first Zanesville meet by refusing to be pinned.

Akron Team Nails Third in ABC Race

FORT WORTH, Tex., (AP) — A pair of new teams climbed close behind the Peter Hand Reserve Beer which holds the open division lead in the American Bowling Congress tournament.

The St. Louis Budweisers, national match game champions, fired a 3,077 in their initial team appearance to move into second place. Peter Hand, of Chicago, leads the division with 3,126.

Fertel Jewelers of Akron, Ohio, climbed into third place in the open team standings with 3,061. The Ohio squad rolled games of 936, 1,068 and 1,057.

The Budweisers posted games of 958, 1,058 and 1,061.

There were no changes in the singles, doubles, or all events standings Wednesday.

HOT ROD CLUB MEETS

Twelve members and three guests attended a meeting of the New Bloomington Sportsmen Hot Rod Club Tuesday night at the New Bloomington townhall. The guests were from Green Camp and a club spokesman said they are being considered for full membership with the Group. Court proceedings were held during the business session.

Schmidt Positive Boston Holds Edge

By The Associated Press

Coach Milt Schmidt feels his Boston Bruins have wiped out the Red Wings' home-ice advantage in their second game tonight in the Stanley Cup semifinals.

"When you get that first one it's a big one — and especially on the other fellow's ice," said Schmidt of Boston's opening 3-1 victory Tuesday night in the best-of-seven series.

Despite the opening Bruin triumph, the National Hockey League champion Red Wings are a one-goal favorite to win tonight in Detroit before meeting Boston Sunday and next Tuesday on Bruin ice.

Hank Aaron of the Milwaukee Braves is the second youngest player to win the National League batting title. Brooklyn's Pete Reiser was one month, 14 days younger when he won the title at age 22.

Vaughn Gets Win

Scoring Errors by Referee Bring Howls by Giardello

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Middleweight Joey Giardello's anguished howl of protest at ringside after dropping a 10-round split decision to Willie Vaughn Wednesday night drew more attention than their dull bout.

Giardello did not go unseen, or unheard. A national television audience caught part of his act, after which two members of the Missouri Athletic Commission said a "no decision" would be declared today.

"Unfortunately, the judges were using the correct system of scoring and the referee was using the old system," Commissioner Charles W. Pian of St. Louis explained.

Corner Informed

Their attention was called to the scoring mixup by co-promoters John Antonello and Frankie Gatto, who also informed Giardello's corner.

The Philadelphian, reacting more quickly to this opening than he had to those presented by Vaughn, touched off a rhubarb over the judges table and soon had the officials on the ropes.

Giardello's manager Frank Carter threatened on the spot to take the matter to court.

Involved was a newly adopted but not previously announced Missouri scoring system. Giardello and his seconds challenged Referee Ray Sissom's card, which scored 52 points for Vaughn, 48 Giardello.

A check disclosed Sissom had not followed the National Boxing Assn. "5-point-must" scoring system, adopted by Missouri and had, instead, scored five rounds of the fight under the old rule. It awarded up to 10 points per round.

Under the "5-point-must" system, no one fighter in any round can be given more than a maximum of 5 points. The loser can be awarded four or less. An even round is scored 5-all.

Awards Six Points

On his scorecard Sissom gave the winner of the second, fifth, sixth, seventh and ninth rounds six points instead of five. It was these rounds Giardello and Carter protested.

As a result of Giardello's challenge, the referee's card was officially changed to read 47-45 in Vaughn's favor.

The Hollywood Negro, a 5-1 underdog, carried the fight to Giardello all the way, and in the fifth bloodied Joey's brow over the right eye. Vaughn gained confidence as the bout progressed, winding up the stronger fighter and virtually unmarked. He weighed 160, Giardello 159¾.

Judge Frank Brown scored the fight 47-45 for Vaughn and judge L. D. Robbins gave it to Giardello 47-41. The Associated Press score card had it 48-45 for Vaughn.

Third Sacker Still Problem For Cleveland

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP)—Like some other managers in the American League, Kerby Farrell of the Cleveland Indians is looking for a third baseman.

Rookie Billy Harrell has been used extensively during the exhibition season but his performance apparently hasn't satisfied Farrell. Bobby Avila also got a chance, but was not impressive.

Latest and most logical candidate is centerfielder Al Smith. He has had some regular season experience at third and there are two replacements available for center — Jim Busby and Bob Usher.

The Indians' pitching staff limited the Chicago Cubs to only three hits Wednesday as the Tribe downed the Cubs 3-0.

The Prospect star is working with the catchers, the job the Tigers originally signed him for. Last year at Jamestown, N.Y., he was used as an outfielder. The shift to his old post has liked the youth's confidence and he appears to be hitting the ball harder than at any time last year.

Modern 'Huck Finns' Fool Parents

2 Oklahoma Boys Play Hooky for Six Months

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — While their parents thought they were in school every day, two young boys lived a Huckleberry Finn life for 6½ months "exploring and sittin' and watching the sky."

The heaven they built for themselves at their "secret" cave was shattered Wednesday and they were to be enrolled in school today.

Police discovered Ora Lee Linville, 14, and his brother, Jerry, 13, sitting beside a cheery camp fire in their cave Wednesday morning. The cave, located in a creek bank near Southeast High School, was near a playground.

"We spent the mornings exploring," Ora said. "Then we'd build a camp fire and eat lunch. In the afternoons we'd just sit and watch the sky or the creek until school was out and then we'd go back home."

Their mother thought the boys had enrolled in school last September. They admitted it was a touch-and-go situation keeping mom and dad fooled.

"When mother asked for our report cards we told her we had lost them or that the school wouldn't give them to us until we paid a fee," Ora Lee said. The family moved here recently from Chickasha, Okla., and weren't familiar with the grade card system.

The parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Linville, said the first time they knew the boys had not been at school was when a police car brought them home.

"Dad gave us a pretty hard talking to when he found out about it," Ora said.

Both boys agreed there was one bright spot in their future.

There is only two more months of school before vacation time.

Youth Rally Scheduled By Local Church Group

An hour-long rally and "singspiration" planned by young people of Marion and county churches is set for Sunday at 3 p.m. at First Presbyterian Church.

This will be a Lenten activity of the Marion Christian Youth Movement with the purpose of providing co-operative "fun, fellowship and inspiration" for youth groups of the individual churches reacting in added enthusiasm for their own programs. Goal of the entire movement is to help each one strengthen its own outreach in promoting "the cause of Christ in our community," MCYM officers declare. President of the interdenominational group is Robert Klingel.

Piano and trumpet music as well as songs will be included and there will be a film, "The Fish Room."

Organist will be Robert Griffith and Donna Eller, pianist. Roger Severns will be song leader, David Maugans will play trumpet and there will be a trio of girls from Green Camp. The rally will be for young people 12 to 24 but adults will be welcome to attend, it was announced. Adult adviser from the Marion County Council of Churches, of which MCYM is the young people's division is Robert Faulkner and ministerial adviser is Rev. Warren W. Lindstrom.

Isn't there something subversive about this Charles Van Doren, who is going to keep on teaching instead of opening a bar and grill like other defeated champions?

College Education Cost Has Doubled Since '40

WASHINGTON (AP) — It costs about twice as much to send a boy or girl to college now as it did before World War II.

An Office of Education survey, made public Wednesday showed that the expenses of an undergraduate student in private colleges average about $2,000 a year. In 1939-1940, the average annual cost was $1,023.

For students in public colleges, the average annual costs now total $1,500 as compared with $747 in the 1939-1940 period.

The survey covers such expenses as tuition, books and supplies as well as room and board, clothing, travel and recreation.

Rural Intersection in Franklin County Tops State in Accidents

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—More accidents happened at the intersection of Georgesville Road and U. S. 40 west of Columbus than at any other rural crossroads in the state last year, the Department of Highway Safety announced today.

The intersection is just one of 97 so-called "trouble spots" on rural roads that have claimed 10 or more accidents.

The department said 28 accidents causing 28 injuries took place at the Georgesville-U. S. 40 intersection during 1956.

The intersection of Kenwood Road and Ohio 22, west of Montgomery in Hamilton County, had 24 accidents with 15 injuries to rank second. Third-ranked "trouble spot" is the junction of Ohio 306 and U. S. 20, west of Mentor in Lake County—24 accidents with 22 injuries.

The injury rate was highest at the intersection of Ohio 90 and 332 east of Orwell in Ashtabula County where 16 accidents resulted in 38 injuries.

Nine of the "trouble spots" claimed 11 lives last year, compared to 13 intersections that claimed 24 lives in 1955.

Lucas County had the highest number of trouble spots—18. Behind it was Montgomery County with 15 and Franklin County with 12.

Crossroads with 20 or more accidents last year were: The junction of Ohio 254 and 57 south of Lorain in Lorain County, 24 accidents and 24 injuries; Ohio 741 and U. S. 25 south of Dayton in Montgomery County, 23 accidents and 11 injuries; Ohio 8 south of Boston Heights in Summit County, 22 accidents, a single death, 17 injuries; Ohio 8 and U. S. 224 east of Akron in Summit County, 22 accidents and 5 injuries; and the junction o. Hill Avenue and U. S. 20 north of Maumee in Lucas county, 20 accidents and 8 injuries.

Layoff Pay Issue To Be Studied by Ohio House Group

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The question of whether Ohio should legalize layoff pay by employers to their jobless workers probably will go to a subcommittee of the House Industry and Labor Committee next week.

Assignment of the issue to a subcommittee was expected Wednesday night, but Chairman Robert F. Reckman (R-Hamilton) postponed the action one week. He said the committee will create two "standing" subcommittees—one to consider unemployment compensation problems and the other to look into issues involving workmen's compensation.

Before the Republican-dominated committee held its final hearing on Supplemental Unemployment Compensation (SUB), Democratic members of the Ohio House caucused and decided unanimously to support the SUB principle.

Monopoly Charged

WASHINGTON (AP)—Loew's, Inc., a theater chain and producers of M-G-M motion pictures, was charged with a civil anti-trust action Wednesday by Atty Gen Brownell. The suit charged that Loew's has required television stations to take its pictures in groups, including pictures the stations did not want, in order to get the pictures they did want.

Boy Found Drowned In Cistern at Atwater

RAVENNA, Ohio (AP)—Ten-year-old Norman C Hackney was drowned in a cistern inside a shed beside his home in nearby Atwater Wednesday.

The boy went out to play after school, and when he did not return for supper his parents, Mr and Mrs. Charles Hackney, notified authorities. A search party of about 50 hunted until 9 p.m. before the body was discovered when 12-foot deep water in the cistern was drained.

Sheriff's deputies said they believed the youngster lost his balance in climbing past the cistern and toppled in.

U. S. government bonds eased.

Rail Strike in New York Hits 65,000 Commuters

NEW YORK (AP)—Trains of the Hudson and Manhattan Railroad stopped operating at 7 a.m. (EST) today, signaling the start of a strike affecting some 65,000 daily commuters between New York and New Jersey.

A walkout by five unions of nonoperating employes hit commuters in New York and Newark, Hoboken and Jersey City, N. J.

Other railroads and bus companies made plans to provide extra service during the rush hours.

The unions involved represent telegraphers, electrical workers, signalmen, car men and about 100 members of the transport workers union in nonoperating jobs.

Man Critically Hurt in Crash East of Marion

A local man was reported in "critical" condition at Marion General Hospital this morning after he was injured in an auto accident on Route 98 four miles east of Marion at 4:45 p.m. Wednesday, patrolmen of the Marion post reported.

He was identified as Cyril D. Burgess, 51, of 256 Summit St. He received head injuries, fractured ribs, a broken collarbone, internal injuries and lacerations of the right ear. He was removed to the hospital in a Boyd ambulance.

The accident was one of two Marion County mishaps investigated Wednesday by local patrolmen, both occurring on Route 98 in the same area. City police reported three minor accidents.

Patrolmen said the southbound Burgess auto went out of control and ran off the left side of the road, plowed through the ditch for 45 feet, jumped back onto the road and shot across to the left side of the highway where it followed the ditch about 135 feet before coming to a standstill.

According to patrolmen's calculations the auto apparently was traveling at a high rate of speed. Burgess was believed to have been thrown up against the front of the car by the pressure of the impact. Extensive damage was done to the auto.

In the second county accident investigated, the two drivers involved escaped injury. It occurred on Route 98 at 10:45 p.m.

A car driven by James H. Robinson, 54, of Galion attempted to pass a northbound auto driven by Mary C. Earl, 40, of near Marion, which was making a left turn into a county road, it was reported.

The vehicles collided, doing only minor damage to both, patrolmen said. Robinson was cited to appear in Marion Municipal Court Friday on a charge of failure to stop within assured clear distance.

3 Hit-Skips in City

Three minor traffic accidents, all of them hit-skips, were investigated Wednesday by Marion police.

A car driven by Sheridan Pierce, 31, of 222 Franconia Ave. was damaged in one of the hit-skip accidents which occurred on E. Center St. near Reed Ave. at 4:05 p.m. He was driving east when another car passed and sideswiped him. Driver of the car stopped and then drove away when Mr. Pierce went to notify police, according to the police report.

In another accident, a car owned by John Gray of Columbus was damaged at 7:27 p.m. while parked in front of 756 S. Prospect St. when struck by an unidentified vehicle, police reported.

The third hit-skip occurred at 8:25 p.m. when a car owned by Frances L. Murphy and parked in front of his home at 624 Ballentine Ave. was struck by an unidentified vehicle, police reported.

Saturday Is Final Day For Property Tax Filing

Approximately 1,500 personal property tax returns remain to be filed between today and the filing deadline at 4:30 p.m. Saturday, according to Maurice Clements, Marion County auditor. A total of about 3,000 returns have been filed to date, out of a possible 4,500, Mr. Clements said.

Both the auditor's and treasurer's offices will be open from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Saturday, the noon hour inclusive, to accommodate county residents. Returns bearing a postmark of March 30 will be regarded as having been filed prior to the deadline time, the auditor noted. All returns posted or brought in after that date are subject to a penalty.

Highway Department Personnel Head Picked

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Dale Fulton, former assistant registrar in the Bureau of Motor Vehicles, today was appointed personnel chief of the Ohio Department of Highways, Highway Chief Charles M. Noble announced.

Fulton replaces Clark Kolp, who will join the department's "public contact team" to work with local groups on highway programs in northwest Ohio.

The bureau announced the appointment of Albert Nebergall, 47, Sandusky auto and auto supply dealer, to replace Fulton as assistant registrar.

Inmates Total 1,004

The total number of inmates at the Marion Correctional Institution reached 1,004 Wednesday with the arrival of 25 men transferred from the Ohio State Penitentiary in Columbus. Lamoyne Green, MCI superintendent, reported today.

Ohio Senate Group Completes Its Action on School Fund Bill

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Senate Education Committee has finished its work, on a bill fixing the mechanics of how state money shall be distributed to needy school districts for classroom construction

The committee recommended passage of a bill setting up a procedure by which needy districts can share in the classroom construction fund to be furnished by the 150 million dollar bond issue approved two years ago by Ohio voters

No one knows right now how big the classroom fund will be, but Ohio Education Assn sources estimate it may be in the vicinity of 35 to 40 million dollars

Here is how the lease-or-purchase arrangement would apply to needy districts.

1. The district would be required to vote its own bonds for school construction up to the legal limit of 9 per cent of its tax duplicate

2 The district would be required to vote, 55 per cent of its electors concurring at the polls, a guarantee that it would tax itself at least 4 mills over a 30 year period, if needed, to pay off its own school building debt and whatever aid it receives from the state

3 The district also would be required to vote a special levy of one-fourth of one mill which would be earmarked for repayment of the state aid in building costs

The bill also sets up a rotary fund for future building needs in needy districts Money repaid from initial loans from the bond issue fund would be used over and over again to meet future needs.

Reports of the district conference held recently at Hebron were given by Mr Van Horn and Mr. Cerny Commander McKenney announced the first nomination of officers for the new year and election of delegates to the district and state conventions will be held at the first meeting in May.

Attacks Prosecution Testimony

Doctor's Defense Opens In London Murder Trial

LONDON (AP) — Counsel for Dr. John Bodkin Adams drew an admission from a prosecuton medical expert today that the rich old lady Dr. Adams is accused of drugging to death lived longer than might be normally expected after suffering a stroke.

Dr. Arthur Henry Douthwaite agreed under cross - examination that the wealthy widow "exceeded the reasonable prognosis of her expectation of life" by at least two years.

Defense Springs Surprise

Earlier, defense counsel sprang a surprise by disclosing that the patient was given injections of morphine even before Dr. Adams took over the case—and suggested she might have already been a drug addict.

Adams, 58, is accused of fatally drugging the 81-year-old woman, Mrs. Edith Alice Morrell, to share in her esstate.

Testifying for the prosecution, Dr. Arthur H. Douthwaite, was asked Wednesday for his opinion of the massive doses of heroin and morphine that Dr. Adams prescribed for Mrs. Morrell.

"The only conclusion I can come to is—that the intention was to terminate her life," Dr. Douthwaite said.

Offers Records

The defense today offered medical records to show Mrs. Morrell was given nightly injections of morphine in Cheshire even before Dr. Adams took her case.

Chief defense counsel Geoffrey Lawrence started his cross examination of the noted specialist by asking:

"It follows from what you said . . .yesterday that murderous intention in your view was present in his (Adams) mind?"

"Yes," replied Dr. Douthwaite.

Lawrence then asked the prosecution expert whether the "field of condemnation that you are spreading from this witness box" includes the doctor who treated Mrs. Morrell before Dr. Adams took the case.

"If that treatment was for the stroke, yes," replied Dr. Douthwaite.

Signs Certificate

Mrs. Morrell died in November 1950, 2½ years after she suffered a stroke. Dr. Adams signed the death certificate recording cerebral thrombosis. Her body was cremated.

The defense then offered as evidence nursing records on the treatment Mrs. Morrell received when she first suffered a stroke in Cheshire in 1948 before Dr. Adams took her case. They showed she had complained of pain and was given barbiturates and sleeping pills with "very little effect."

The prosecution had argued there was no indication Mrs. Morrell was ever in any great pain to justify injections of pain-killing drugs.

Lawrence emphasized that Mrs. Morrell was 79 when she suffered a stroke and asked:

"It would not have been unreasonable for a doctor, so far as you can see, to form the view that after this stroke and at that age a prognosis in terms of expectation of life might reasonable be put at 6 to 12 months?"

"I agree," replied Dr. Douthwaite.

The defense counsel stressed that two other doctors besides Adams who treated Mrs. Morrell all used drugs, including morphine. He also drew affirmative responses from the witness when he asserted that the three doctors had seen the patient "herself, in the condition she was in at the time" and that Dr. Douthwaite had never, so far as he knew, seen the woman.

Ringling Circus Heads North Minus 'Big Top'

SARASOTA, Fla., (AP) — The circus was to take to the road today, but being left behind are such familiar sights as the big top and the gaudy circus personnel trains.

Instead, a streamlined version of Ringling Bros and Barnum & Bailey sets its sights on New York and a spring tour.

Performers and workers are to travel on a regular passenger train. Only the animals are setting out on the gaily painted circus cars.

John Ringling North, president of the circus, thought up the idea of a new styled circus after the show folded its tent in mid-season in Pittsburgh last July.

Cabinet Called By Macmillan In Strike Crisis

LONDON (AP) — Prime Minister Macmillan summoned his Cabinet today to discuss two major strikes threatening Britain's hard - won economic recovery.

Employers and the striking unions meanwhile squared off for what looked like a prolonged slugging match, but the employers were still meeting to decide whether to negotiate directly with strike leaders.

The Confederation of Shipbuilding and Engineering Unions went ahead with plans to call out another 500,000 engineers and workers on Saturday from London area factories producing aircraft, machine tools, and electrical and atomic equipment.

A million men already are out in the engineering workers' strike and the union threatens to call out another 1½ million by April 6, closing down 4,300 plants which turn out 40 per cent of Britain's exports.

In the other strike, 200,000 shipyard workers — also controlled by the CSEU — have kept the nation's 270 shipyards at a standstill for 12 days and stopped work on 300 ships.

The CSEU apparently is seeking to settle both strikes on the basis of a 5 per cent interim agreement, pending the outcome of an inquiry, and an employer pledge not to insist that any agreement be binding for a year.

New York Man Is Held For Beating Mother, 84

NEW YORK (AP)—A 51-year-old man is charged with felonious assault in the beating of his 84-year-old mother.

Mrs. Mae Amory was taken to Bellevue Hospital Wednesday with a fractured skull and multiple injuries. Her condition was described as critical.

She had been living with her son Fremont Amory, an architect, for about a year in his Manhattan apartment.

At first the frail mother denied her son had beaten her during an argument. Later, however, she told police: "Yes, he did it I wanted to protect him. I didn't want him to be hurt."

Charles H. Artman, 65, district accountant in charge of the Erie Railroad's accounting bureau at Hornel, N.Y. will retire a the end of the month, George W. Thompson, auditor of disbursements announced today. He has completed more than 43 years of service.

Mr. Artman will leave Erie service in accordance with the company's "retire at 65" program. He will be honored at a dinner scheduled at the Moose Club in Hornell tonight.

A native of Galion, he started with the railroad as a stenographer in the master mechanic's office in Marion and later advanced to chief clerk for the mechanical and stores departments in 1915, and chief clerk of the accounting bureau there in 1918. He was promoted to division accountant here in 1919 and moved to Youngstown in that capacity the following year.

Mr. Artman was promoted to assistant district accountant in 1927 at Youngstown and went to Hornell in that position in 1932. He moved up as district accountant at Hornell in 1946.

Editor Doubts Ike Will Stick Out His Term

NEW YORK (AP)—Louis Seltzer, editor of the Cleveland Press and editor-in-chief of Ohio's Scripps-Howard newspapers, says he wouldn't be surprised if President Eisenhower quits in the middle of his term.

"If it should happen," he told the New York chapter of the Public Relations Society of America Wednesday, "then for two years it would give Richard Nixon an opportunity to demonstrate to the country what he is capable of doing."

Asked for comment on Seltzer's remarks, White House press secretary James C. Hagerty said in Washington:

"I have never heard such utter nonsense."

If the President does complete his term, however, Seltzer said, "I am not persuaded in my own mind that Dick Nixon can without any difficulty get the 1960 nomination."

Tobacco Tax Revenue Double Producer Profit

WASHINGTON (AP) — The tax collector got nearly twice as much from tobacco products last year as did the farmer.

An Agriculture Department report on the tobacco situation said federal and state agencies collected $2,815,000,000 on cigarettes and other tobacco products in 1956. Farmers, on the other hand, got $1,151,000,000 for last year's tobacco crop.

The department said tax receipts were up 4 per cent last year but that farm returns from tobacco were down 6 per cent.

Only Originals in U.S.

Dead Sea Scrolls To Go To Seminary at Chicago

CHICAGO (NANA) — The only originals of the celebrated Dead Sea scrolls yet obtained for the United States will be enshrined here at the McCormick Theological Seminary under elaborate conditions designed to preserve them indefinitely.

Included in the group still being translated in the Palestine Archaeological Museum but soon to start their journey West are eight fragmentary leather documents and a sheet of papyrus. They were among the prized manuscripts which Bedouins found sealed in urns secreted for centuries in caves sunk into cliffs high above a dry stream bed in Jordan, according to Dr. Frank M Cross Jr., associate professor of Old Testament at the Presbyterians' school for ministers.

The purchase price is believed to be as much as $75,000, considering the agreed-upon rate of an English pound — approximately $2.80 — for each square centimeter, which the Jordan department of antiquities struck with shrewdly bargaining Arab tribesmen.

THE SUM HAS BEEN given to the McCormick seminary by C. F. Rehnborg of Buena Park, Calif., through the Nutrilite Foundation which he and his wife head, after his interest was aroused during reading one of the best-seller books on the scrolls.

Currently engaged in unraveling the secrets of the scrolls in the Palestine Museum along with Dr. Cross is another American, Monsignor P. W. Skehan of Catholic University, and Fathers J. T. Milik of Poland, and J. Starcky and D. Bartholemy of France; Dr. Claus-Hunno Hunzinger, Gottingen, Germany, and John Allegro and John Strugnell of England.

The scrolls to be kept here are part of the so-called Cave IV lot. Eleven caves so far have yielded the Biblical treasures either to shepherds or to search parties sent into the Wadi Qumran area since the original discoveries in 1947.

ACCORDING TO Dr. Cross, the theory now generally held by the experts is that the scrolls were the library of the lost sect of Essene monks. A few years after Pontius Pilate, judge at the trial of Christ, was recalled in 44 A.D. to Rome for banishment to Gaul, the monks laboriously sealed up their writings and took them to the hills for fear that the Romans would destroy their scholarship.

The cache of scrolls is rapidly being spoken for. The seven best preserved of the Cave I lot are in the possession of Israel, three of them having been purchased for a reputed $25,000 from the former Syrian metropolitan of Jerusalem. The remainder of that lot is distributed between museums in Jordan and France.

The possibilty of any of the scrolls finding a permanent home in the United States opened up when the Jordan council of ministers passed a law permitting reputable foreign institutions to purchase additional lots of the manuscripts of Cave IV still in Bedouin hands.

McGILL, MANCHESTER and Heidelberg universities, the Vatican library, and the McCormick Seminary quickly acted to take advantage of the opportunity.

It is possible that other scrolls yet may find their way to the United States for permanent custody, according to Dr. Cross. Cave XI, discovered a year ago, yielded an impressive set now safely stored in the vault of the Palestine Museum awaiting decipherment and editing

The scrolls to be permanently installed here were found by Kando, a cobbler of Bethlehem and semi-official broker in manuscripts for the Taamurch tribesmen.

They are said to be large and legible, and the most valuable is a copy of the book of Jeremiah, probably from the end of the Second century B.C. Dr. Cross states that its interest is more in its unusual text than in its great age, however.

The text of Jeremiah survives in two forms: the traditional Hebrew which became the accepted text of the Middle Ages, and the Greek translation of the Second or Third century, B.C., commonly called the Septuagint by scholars There are striking differences between them, and the scroll is believed to give the underlying Hebrew version.

Another particularly prized scroll in the group are two manuscripts of Daniel. No other Biblical manuscript is believed to stand so close to its original unless it is the Rylands Library fragment of John from the First half of the Second Christian century, or a manuscript of Ecclesiates from about 15 B.C., which also is in the McCormick lot, Dr. Cross explained

Past and Present Are Intermingled In Southwest Area

SANTA FE, N.M. (INS) — The past and present are intermingled in the legends and traditions of the Southwest today.

The once-proud Indian has retained many of the traditions of his ancestors, but they also have picked up a few new rituals in recent years.

The governors of seven New Mexico Indian pueblos still carry as their badge of office silver-headed canes presented their tribes by President Lincoln in 1863.

The engraving on each cane is the same. It reads: "A Lincoln—Prst. U.S.A.—(name of the tribe)—1863."

An interesting part of the Navajo Indians' costume in New Mexico is a set of "mother-in-law bells."

Navajo custom forbids a man to look upon his mother-in-law. Therefore, many Navajo women, when visiting their married daughters, wear small silver bells on their clothes to warn the son-in-law of their approach.

In the ruined Indian Pueblo of Knuaua, near Bernalillo, N.M., archaeologists have discovered a sunken kiva—or ceremonial chamber—with walls covered by an astonishing series of murals.

More than 60 layers of mud-plaster covering were found, 18 of them painted with figures and symbols that added greatly to man's knowledge of prehistoric Indian culture.

MONORAIL STUDIED

NORFOLK, Va. (AP)—This big port city has named a seven-man commission to study a monorail system to serve the city and perhaps Virginia Beach, some 20 miles away. Cost of a high-speed, overhead rail transit system were estimated by one company at $330,000 per mile.

Theft of Goose Foiled By Alert Zoo Patrolman

BALTIMORE (AP) — Two men swiped a goose from a duck pond here but they laid an egg.

The goose was Egyptian, the duck pond was part of the Baltimore Zoo and watching the whole thing was Thomas Greene, a Baltimore park policeman.

Blaine Rhoton, 34, and John C. Burnett, 35, were fined $75 each for the theft, and for disorderly conduct to boot.

Radio and Television

By MARIE TORRE

Jack Barry Without Charles Van Doren

Marie Torre who is on vacation, put the following questions to Jack Barry, M. C. on NBC's "21."

How does it feel to have the first show in TV to outrate "I Love Lucy?"

Obviously all of us on "Twenty-One" are elated at the success of the program. However, it is a rather sobering thought to realize how fast even the highrated programs can drop.

MARIE TORRE

Now that the Charles Van Doren frenzy is over, do you think "Twenty-One" will hold its audience?

While Charles Van Doren did contribute to the success of "Twenty-One," we firmly believe that the excellent format and game quality of the program will insure its continued popularity. Naturally, contestants of the caliber of Charles Van Doren give the show added impetus, but by and large, "Twenty-One" will attract a large and steady audience by virtue of its inherent drama and excitement.

DO YOU THINK giveaways are here to stay?

Yes—as long as the entertainment and game value of the shows are high, there is no reason why big giveaway shows should not continue to be successful. Merely giving away money is no longer enough.

What do you say to "talk" about giveaways being "fixed?"

Whenever big money is at stake, talk of "fixing" always circulates. As it applies to our programs, it is utterly groundless and false. I cannot speak for other program producers, but I am sure if you queried them they would answer similarly.

Do quiz show owners exercise any control over contestants?

Contestants appearing on our shows are instructed as to the mechanics of the games. From that point on, they are entirely on their own.

Are you and NBC close to signing a co-partnership deal for all the shows your company (Barry-Enright Productions) produces?

This has been in the discussion stage for several weeks and talks are still continuing, with nothing signed as to this date.

DO YOU FEEL animosity toward Entertainment Productions, Inc. (packagers of "$64,000 Question", "$64,000 Challenge" and "Big Surprise") for firing you as emcee of "Big Surprise" last year?

With the passing of time, I feel less animosity towards EPI. Parenthetically, I did not object to their removing me from the show—that was their privilege. It was the manner in which they did it that hurt so deeply.

Were you jobless after your exit from "The Big Surprise"?

No, I was actively concerned with "Winky Dink and You," as well as in the production plans for "Twenty-One," "Tic Tac Dough" and other properties in our organization. But, frankly, my "firing" left me terribly disconcerted and most depressed. It would have taken very little to induce me to enter another field. I gave it much serious consideration, but fortunately, my decision was to remain. It looks like it was the right decision.

WHAT IS THE WORTH of Barry-Enright Productions?

It is impossible to indicate any figure at this time, because it is impossible to estimate the life of any particular program. However, by virtue of the success of our current shows, we are optimistic about the future. We have no net worth figure available at the moment, but we are always interested in bids.

Does your wife (Marcia Van Dyke) feel you're capable of shows better than giveaways? And do you?

The inference from the question is that there is something demeaning about doing a giveaway show. I do not subscribe one bit to this notion. Nowadays, for the most part, they are informative, exciting and packed with drama, and I might also add they are a challenge for an emcee. I would like to emcee a variety type show some day, but for the moment my current programs are most satisfying.

Claiming illness, Bette Davis has pulled out of the "Playhouse 90" lineup for the April 11 "All the Things You Are." She'll be replaced by Anne Baxter, who makes her live TV debut. Bette's husband, Gary Merrill, remains as co-star . . . Gisele MacKenzie, the "Hit Parade" thrush who leaves the show at season's end, is almost a sure bet to turn up on CBS-TV this Fall in her own Saturday eve slot . . . Mel Allen, the voice of the Yankees, picked for NBC's "Salute To Baseball" stanza April 13 . . .

Woman Gets Bargain In Purchase at Auction

LINCOLN, Neb. (AP)—For $2 at an auction sale, a Lincoln woman got a dresser, a box containing a doll and other items—and a stock certificate worth $440.

Lancaster County Judge Herbert Ronin ruled, after a trial, that the buyer, Mrs. Robert Martin, was the rightful owner of the certificate, found in the box after Mrs. Martin had brought her purchases home.

The auction was held to dispose of household effects of an estate whose executor contended inclusion of the stock certificate in Mrs. Martin's purchase was an "unconscious mistake."

ON THE RECORD

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — After 43 years as a federal court reporter, Tom Irby kept right on working during an unusual turn of events in Judge T. Whitfield Davidson's court. Irby was put on the stand to testify about the accuracy of his reporting of a contested trial. As he testified he recorded his own testimony.

There is a light at top, powered by a water-activated battery. Bottom: Collapsed, usable as an ordinary cot. It has a shoulder strap.

Girl Engineers Required for U.S. Industry

WINDSOR LOCKS, Conn. (AP) — Wanted: more women engineers.

College girls in search of careers would do well to consider the slide-rule, says Rose Worobel, a pioneer of 14 years standing in the Hamilton Standard Division of United Aircraft Corp. here.

It was a rough road in the beginning, says Rose, but today's girl engineers will find the way smoothed for them with a prospect of equal opportunities with men.

"When women first went into industry as engineers, we had to do a better job than the men, and even cater to them a bit," says Rose. "Now women are accepted as a matter of course, and the future holds great opportunities."

Miss Worobel started her engineering career in 1943, after graduation from Bates College and a six-month course at Penn State University. At this time women were getting their first chance to break into the engineering ranks, because of the shortage of male engineers during the war.

She now holds down the important post of technical supervisor, coordinating work and conducting performance calculations on propellors, as well as working on designs for propellor blades. She works closely with some 50 men engineers daily on ideas for equipment for tomorrow's airplanes.

At present Rose is midway through a three-year night course at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute's Graduate School to earn her master's degree in engineering.

'Poison Pen' Note Stops Clerk in Traffic Bureau

FITCHBURG, Mass. (AP)—A girl clerk in the District Court office gingerly opened an envelope bearing two labels marked "poison."

It contained a letter from an irate Clinton motorist complaining that he had received summonses for overtime parking in Fitchburg.

"I haven't been in Fitchburg for six months," the letter said. "And the way you give out parking tickets I'll never go to Fitchburg. Please do not send me any more tickets."

Frozen 'Lettuce' Found In Housewife's Order

MATADOR, Tex. (AP)—Frozen lettuce was one item Mrs. Harold Campbell had not counted on storing in her ranch home deep freeze near Matador, Tex.

Putting away 500 pounds of frozen steaks and roasts, she noticed one unlabeled package. That she laid aside to thaw for lunch.

Then the Campbell Ranch received an urgent phone call from the butcher in town. He had started looking for the weekend receipts which he had hidden in the freezing department.

Had Mrs. Cambell noticed anything unusual in her purchases? Only the unlabeled package.

Antelope Skeleton Puzzles Scientists

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A 3-million-year-old antelope skeleton has been discovered in Southern California.

Dr. Theodore Downs of the Los Angeles County Museum says the species is so new to scientists that they haven't given it a name yet.

The prize find was made by two oil geologists while mapping the Gorman area for a petroleum company.

Dr. Downs estimates that the antelope was a creature of the Pliocene Period and guesses that it was a plains animal similar to today's pronghorn antelope although not nearly as large.

"This one was about the size of a medium dog," he says.

Bottle Completes Long Voyage, German Says

LINCOLN, Neb (AP)—On the spur of the moment one day in October, 1953, the LaVerne Sutton family of Alvo, Neb., placed a note in a bottle and tossed it into the Missouri River near Rulo, Neb.

Three years later the bottle turned up on the shores of the Eider River in North Germany, probably 8,000 water miles away.

The surprised Suttons learned about it in a German postmarked letter from one, Otto Andresen, who said "yor bottlepost" was found on the Eider's shore "by the peninsul Eiderstedt, Germany, near the town Tonning, sharp by the village Vollerwiek on the mouth of the Eider."

Pro-West Despite Policy

U.S. Approves of Swiss, Swedish Neutral Stand

STOCKHOLM (NANA) — The Swedish and Swiss type of neutrality is well received and understood by the U.S. government, although no official will say so outright.

In both countries, private sentiment is pro-Western despite their governments' official policy of neutralism.

The difference between the attitude of the mind and of the heart is illustrated in this little incident that occurs to many tourists. As the Scandinavian Airlines guide shows his guests the statue of Sweden's Charles XII, he says "The statue points to where King Charles defeated the Russians. But not to offend the Russians, we now say that he points to the Grand Hotel."

Swedish and Swiss neutrality is of value to the West. Because they are real neutrals—as opposed to satellite nations—the West can turn to them for a fair shake when international disputes call for impartiality. Both nations were of help in maintaining the Korean armistice.

STATE DEPARTMENT officers proudly count off what the Swedes and Swiss have done for the freedom fighters and refugees of Hungary. Both are said to have done more per capita for the Hungarians than other countries.

Swedes have taken many rejects —the TB cases, the elderly and the unemployable—who could not find admittance elsewhere. Sweden has admitted 4,000 Hungarians, and is broadcasting special programs for them in their own language.

Nothing has shaken the Swiss more in modern times than the Hungarian uprising They have taken many refugees and all Switzerland maintained one minute of silence one noon in memory of those in Budapest who had given their lives for freedom. The old "Wilhelm Tell" freedom play is enoying a successful revival in Zurich.

BUT IN BOTH countries there is some feeling of guilt, that perhaps they hadn't done enough before or hadn't carried their share of the free world's burden.

Again in both countries there are voices raised in favor of joining the West and abandoning their stand of neutrality. Here in Stockholm the biggest newspaper is openly pro-NATO and pro-West.

A minority of politicians in both countries oppose neutralism on the grounds that in case of a war the warring parties will not honor Swedish and Swiss neutrality.

As one American sympathizer in Sweden put it, "You can remain neutral officially, but it's hard to be neutral privately when you see the Russians maneuver nearby or when you have to swallow Moscow's phony explanation of the death of Raoul Wallenberg, the Swedish diplomat who was killed by the Soviets for helping thousands of Jews flee Budapest during the last war."

NEITHER SMALL country is really defensible in the atomic-parachute age, although for their size both have well trained defense forces. Sweden has the world's fourth or fifth largest air force behind the United States, Russia, England and perhaps Communist China. It manufactures good jet aircraft and is an exporter of arms and ammunition.

They are very security conscious. On the books are tougher espionage laws than in most other countries. There is a Swiss law against economic espionage that discourages the visitor from asking production figures during factory visits.

Before your plane flies over Swedish territory, the stewardesses on Scandinavian Airlines Vikings ask you not to take any aerial photos although Russian commercial transports fly the same route

Neutrality is firmly entrenched and there is no chance of a change in their official stand, but privately both governments and their people are pro-U.S. and pro-West.

Homes Ranked at Head Of List by French Wives

PARIS (INS) — The average French woman's heart is in her home, a recent women's weekly magazine survey indicates.

"A happy marrige" was listed first under the heading "the joys of a woman," gathering 5,215,651 points. Second, with 4,562,111, was "having children," while "seeing my husband succeed" came third with 4,488,302 votes and "being well-housed" came fourth with 4, 344,155

"Being well dressed," the thing Frenchwomen are noted for, placed a poor tenth with 2,740,727. Almost tied for the same spot with readers of the French magazine "Elle" were women chosing the "looking pretty" category.

Another topic voted on was "the cares of a woman." The biggest care—for Frenchwomen, anyway—was "having an unfaithful husband," which worry racked up 4,333,741. The health of her loved ones ran fourth, fear of war seventh, and feeling less attractive than other women 18th. In 20th and last place was "worrying about my reputation."

AMBIDEXTROUS

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP)—Six-year-old Michael Sullivan had been worried about how he was going to cut his birthday cake since he broke his left arm and had to have it in a cast. Just before the party, he fell off a low fence and broke his right arm.

HUNTED HUNTERS

HOPKINSVILLE, Ky (AP) — Dr. J. H. Young and his friends received a warm reception while hunting on the artillery range at Fort Campbell. Authorities who had given them permission to hunt had no idea the big guns would cut loose. But there was a change in the Army's plans. And the change in plans by Dr. Young & Company was immediate. They ran for cover just like the small game they had been hunting.

Windstorm Saves City In Texas Bill for $150

BROWNFIELD, Tex. (AP) — The Santa Fe Railroad gave the City of Brownfield a water tank, no longer needed in the new age of diesels.

There was one condition to the gift—the city was to remove the cement-anchored tank.

A city crew laboriously dug out the cement but was baffled by the task of easing the big tank over on its side so that it could be dragged away.

That's when a Texas norther blew up, and tossed the tank on its side just where the crew wanted it. Saved the city $150.

Wealthy Princes Desert Deadbeats

Arab Sheiks Are Fast To Order, Slow To Pay

PARIS (NANA) — Don't build a harem for an emir unless he pays in advance.

That's the stern advice of a half-dozen European companies that recently lodged complaints at the headquarters of International Chamber of Commerce here about desert deadbeats. The ICC is checking into the charges, though its officials frankly are doubtful at the moment what can be done.

"What this requires," said one, "is an infatigable bill-collector with his own camel."

But it really isn't a joking matter. Harem-building has become one of the most profitable business enterprises of the era, at least on paper. The trouble is that oil-saturated Arab princes who eagerly order them built in the suburbs of Riyadh, Mecca and elsewhere sometimes prove obdurate about paying for them. When that happens, the contractors may be a long, long time settling the bill.

BRAITHWAITES, a British engineering firm, has been dunning Emir Abdullah, one of King Saud's numerous relatives, for nearly two years without success. That is just one example. According to its report to the ICC, the company claims that the emir has an account "outstanding" of a tidy $500,000. Its constructon crews built a marble palace for him at Riyadh complete with a 40-apartment harem with 20 bathrooms. Total cost $2,500,000.

Abdullah isn't holding out the odd half a million because he is in tight straits, even for a sheik. As Saud's uncle he gets a regular yearly allowance in six figures. But he won't pay because he insists the palace wasn't up to specifications. He wanted it fully air-conditioned and it's not. The British firm says that was never in the contract.

The emir also owes money to a Swiss firm which furnished the palace—a small one, incidentally, by current Arabian standards—with everything from Louis XV furniture, specially made to resist the Arabian climate, to scrubbing brushes and brooms. He originally ordered sterling silver table service for 450 guests, but later thought better of it and settled for plate. Even so, he allegedly owes this company nearly $100,000.

WHEN THE BRITISH firm told Abdullah they would like to adjudicate the affair in court, he swiftly agreed. But the court he insisted on was his own at Riyadh.

The company's local agents were permitted to attend, but not its lawyers. It therefore came as something less than an overwhelming surprise when the court ruled the contract was no longer valid and the emir could forget about paying the remainder of what he owed.

The British government has declined to intervene, as have the governments of other companies with unsettled bills on their hands, among them France and Belgium.

Such incidents have served to deflate the sheiks' credit-rating abroad recently, though there remain a lot of businessmen anxious as ever to take on their trade. The experience of an executive of one of America's largest electrical manufacouring companies helps explain why.

"I decided to stop over in Saudi Arabia for a day or two while on a tour of our sales agencies in Europe and the Near East," he said. "It was more of a lark than anything else, frankly. But the Arabian officials were so flattered by my visit, they gave us an order for 500 air conditioners, instead of it going to a competitor. Just like that."

Though he was against it, his wife insisted on accompanying him. "But she was treated very well," he explained. "When we were leaving, a sheik whose guests we had been gave her a gold bracelet. He said it was meant as a 'little' souvenir of our visit. I thought it was gold-plated. But we have just had it appraised. It's worth $750."

Resident Says City Going to the Dogs

EAST ST. LOU'S, Ill. (AP) — A resident on Oliver Street says the dogs are too smart for the dog catcher.

She says huge packs roam the neighborhood.

"I have called the police and they refer you to the Health Department. When the Health Department truck comes by there is not a dog in sight.

"They tell me to catch the dogs and confine them but how are you going to go out and grab other people's dogs?

"Something is going to have to be done or we will have to move out and leave the city to the dogs," she said.

Instructions Given on Use Of Ship Radar

PORTLAND, Ore. (INS)—There will always be collisions between ships at sea, but there needn't be as many as there are now, according to Capt. L. M. Thayer of the Coast Guard in Portland.

The solution, he says, is the proper use of radar equipment which now is carried by many merchant vessels.

"A blip on a radarscope shows only distance and relative position," Capt. Thayer explained. "You need to know much more—mostly the speed and direction of an oncoming vessel and the point at which its path will interesect yours."

He said such information can easily be obtained by plotting individual blips on a standard navy "maneuvering board" or "radar" graph," which anyone can purchase.

However, in the past, instructions for use of such equipment has been so heavily draped in mystery that navigators on most merchant ships have been discouraged about using them, according to Capt. Thayer.

But simplified instructions in the use of such equipment now is available—so simplified that an hour's time can fit almost anyone for accurately plotting radar courses at sea — Capt. Thayer says.

The instructions have been published by a Portland concern under the title "Practical Radar Plotting." Incidentally, the book was written by Capt. Thayer.

Friendly Drivers Cloud Auto Accident Report

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — Patrolman J. P. Perrine was boiling when he jumped from his squad car after it and another vehicle collided.

The driver of the other car, Phil Eisenhour, a former policeman, also jumped out ready for anything.

They were set with some pretty hot words when they recognized each other as old police buddies.

When accident investigator Bill Lewellen arrived at the scene, Perrine claimed he was at fault, forgetting to stop at the corner. Eisenhour said he was going too fast and went through a red light.

Lewellen, faced with such a situation for the first time, scratched his head and finally gave both men accident forms to fill out after they had more time to think.

Miniature Hot Cross Loaves for Lent

Bun Dough Is Studded With Currants, Fruit, Baked in Tiny Pans

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

Miniature hot cross loaves are so inviting that they'll be carried off and eaten before you can say "Lent."

A Michigan colleague of ours passed along the idea of baking regular hot cross bun dough in tiny loaf pans and, thanks to her ingenuity, a new culinary tradition may have been founded!

The small pans — each measuring about 4½ by 2½ by 1½ inches — are widely available. We found ours in a dime store at 15 cents apiece on a counter that held cooking utensils for small fry. The pans may be used for many dishes besides this Lenten one — for miniature sponge cakes, fruit cakes, meat loaves, molded salads.

Our hot cross loaves are faintly colored and scented with cinnamon and studded with currants and candied fruit. Because the dough is not overly sweet, we used a generous amount of white frosting to mark the tops. Delicious when sliced and served with butter soon after they come out of the oven, the loaves are also unusually good sliced and toasted after they are a few days old—if you can keep any of them around that long.

MINIATURE HOT CROSS LOAVES

Ingredients: ¾ cup milk, 1 teaspoon salt, 1-3 cup sugar, ¼ cup shortening, ¼ cup warm (near 105 degrees) water, 1 package active dry yeast, 2 eggs, 1¼ teaspoons cinnamon, 4½ cups (about) sifted enriched flour, extra shortening (melted), 1-3 cup currants (rinsed in hot water and drained), 1-3 cup chopped candied fruit, 1 egg yolk, Confectioners' Frosting.

Method: Scald milk; stir in salt, sugar and shortening; cool to lukewarm. Measure warm water into large mixing bowl; sprinkle in yeast; stir until dissolved; stir in lukewarm milk mixture. Beat 2 eggs enough to combine yolks and whites; add to yeast mixture with cinnamon; stir well. Add half the flour; beat until smooth. Stir in additional flour. Turn dough out on lightly floured board; knead. Place in greased bowl; brush top lightly with melted shortening. Cover with clean towel; let rise in warm place, free from draft, until doubled in bulk — about 1 hour. Punch dough down and turn out on lightly floured board; knead currants and candied fruit into dough. Divide into small loaves (elongated rolls). Press into greased miniature bread pans (each 4½ by 2½ by 1½ inches). Beat together 1 egg yolk and 2 tablespoons cold water; brush tops of loaves with the mixture. Cover. Let rise in warm place, free from draft, until doubled in bulk — about 1 hour and 15 minutes. Bake in moderate (375 degrees) oven about 25 to 30 minutes. Remove from pans to racks; cool and decorate with Confectioners' Frosting.

Confectioners' Frosting: Mix ¾ cup sifted confectioners' sugar, 3 teaspoons milk and ⅛ teaspoon vanilla until smooth. If not thick enough for spreading consistency, add extra confectioners' sugar. Drop from tip of small coffee spoon, making several crosses on tops of cold loaves.

Miniature Hot Cross Loaves Turned Out of Small-Fry Baking Pans.

New Naval Commander Selected in Philippines

MANILA (INS) — A shift in the command of the American naval forces in the Philippines is slated to take place April 15 when the current naval commander, Rear Admiral Wendell G. Switzer, returns to the U.S. to assume command of an Atlantic air fleet command.

Switzer's successor is Rear Admiral Edgar A. Cruise, present commander of Fleet Air, Hawaii.

The Navy at Sangley Point made the announcement as Adm. Switzer wound up his year-long tenure in the Philippines as commander, Philippines command (U.S.) and comm oder, U.S. Naval Forces in the Philippines.

Cruise is a native of Hebron, Neb. Like Switzer, his successor is a naval aviator, having earned his wings at the naval air station in Pensacola. He saw action in World War II, flying with naval air squadrons and aboard aircraft carriers.

In the early part of the Pacific War, he commanded the air group aboard the Saratoga. He was awarded the Navy Cross for "extraordinary heroism and distinguished service . . ." as an officer of the Saratoga during action with Japanese forces off Guadalcanal in 1942.

France, Britain Seeking Big Boost in Oil Reserve

PARIS (NANA) — Anglo-French oil experts have proposed that the two governments undertake to amass unprecendentedly immense reserves, equal to a year to 18 months' supply. They admit that the cost would be tremendous, but insist there is no other way in the near future to remove the two nations' economies from tottering everlastingly on the brink of petroleum famine.

The plan has come under discussion by officials of the French ministry of commerce and industry and Britain's ministry of power even as the first shipments of Middle East oil have begun to reach European ports since the canal was blocked. It reflects their view that this may be only the first of recurrent crises in the area affecting the flow of oil.

"We have got to adjust ourselves to the possibility, indeed the probability, of perpetual crisis in the Middle East," this reporter was told by a French ministry expert.

AS ENVISAGED here, a scheme to build up in the two countries approximately five times the amount of petroleum stores ordinarily maintained in the past would entail far closer integration of activities between governments and private oil companies than has ordinarily been the case.

The proposal under consideration calls for the companies to bear at least part of the cost of enlarging storage and refining facilities necessary to create greater reserves. This is on the ground that, though the companies would not immediately benefit, they would do so ultimately if oil sources were again threatened. None has as yet been formally approached on this aspect, since the idea is still in the discussion stage. But the companies are expected to display some resistance.

The United States government, however, is understood to be enthusiastic about such a scheme as a means of lessening the Arab states' day-to-day bargaining power as far as Western Europe is concerned and thus easing tension. There are suggestions here that amassing reserves on the scale being considered would require American financial help.

ONE OF THE BIG problems is that storage facilities would have to be continually expanded, since Europe's dependence on oil is expected to be twice as great in 10 years as it is today. The use of nuclear power as an industrial substitute is still too far off, even in England which is pushing it faster than any other country, to affect that basic fact.

When Egypt sank block ships in the canal last November, Western Europe was consuming a little more than 2,000,000 barrels a day. In 1965, the figure should be 4,500,000 barrels.

Expert opinion here is also emphasizing the need to expand capacity to construct tankers, especially those of the new giant size, as a means, both literally and figuratively, of "getting around" the canal.

But, significantly enough, the experts have veered away from oil pipelines as substitutes for the canal. The experience of the sabotaged Syrian pipeline has gradually thrown more and more weight in official circles here behind the view that any major pipelines that might be built in the Middle East today could not be made proof against similar political and military intimidation.

Moore, Clerk of the Board of Education, of the Ridgedale Local School District, Marion County, Ohio at the office of the Local Superintendent of Schools at the Ridgedale Local School District, School Building, Morral, Ohio, until 8:00 P.M. (eight o'clock P.M.) Eastern Standard Time, April 8, 1957, for the purchase of bonds of said school district in the aggregate amount of five hundred ninety-five thousand dollars ($595,000.00) to be dated the first day of April, 1957 and bearing interest at the rate of 4 per cent per annum, payable semi-annually on the first day of June and December of each year, beginning June 1, 1958.

Said bonds are the second and final series of bonds which were voted November 6, 1956 and are payable from unlimited taxes.

Said bonds are issued for the purpose of acquiring site for a new high school building; constructing a new fire-proof high school building; improving present buildings; furniture and furnishings; landscape planting; and side-walks and drives, under the laws of Ohio, particularly the Uniform Bond Law, and in accordance with a certain Resolution "To Issue Bonds After Submission to Electors" passed on the 25th day of February, 1957.

Said bonds shall be in the denomination of $1000.00 each, and shall be due and payable as follows: $30,000.00 on December 1, in each of the years 1958 to 1976 inclusive and $25,000.00 December 1, 1977.

Said bonds shall be numbered 101 to 695 inclusive of both numbers.

Both principal and interest will be payable at the legal depository of said school district, currently the National City Bank of Marion, in the City of Marion, County of Marion, State of Ohio.

Any one desiring to do so may present a bid or bids for said bonds based upon their bearing a different rate of interest than specified in this advertisement. Provided, however, where a fractional interest rate is bid, such fraction shall be one quarter of one per cent or multiples thereof.

Said bonds will be awarded to the highest bidder offering the lowest interest rate at not less than par and accrued interest at a meeting of said Board of Education to be held at 8:00 o'clock P.M. (E.S.T.) on the 8th day of April, 1957, or at an adjourned meeting thereof.

All bids must state the gross amount of bid and accrued interest to date of delivery, shall be sealed and endorsed "Bid For Ridgedale Local School District School Improvement Bonds."

All bids must be accompanied by a certified check drawn in favor of the Board of Education of the Ridgedale Local School District in the sum of $5950.00 upon condition that if the bid is accepted, the bidder will receive and pay for such bonds within a reasonable time after the award thereof or forfeit the same as liquidated damages in the event said condition is not fulfilled. The Board of Education of said school district reserves the right to reject any and all bids.

The proceedings for this issue are being taken under the supervision of the Firm of Squire, Sanders, and Dempsey, Cleveland, Ohio, whose approving opinion may be obtained by the successful bidder at his expense. A complete transcript of proceedings and the printed bonds will be furnished by the Board of Education.

Ancient Oasis Discovered on Coast of Israel

JERUSALEM (INS) — Well-fortified coastal settlements dating back to the first century B.C. have been discovered by a Hebrew University expedition along oases on the eastern shores of the Sinai Peninsula.

A 15-man team of archaeologists, geographers and geologists travelled by tank landing craft from Eilat to Ras Muhammad, exploring for a week a region hitherto untouched by scientists. They returned several days ago from a week's survey.

Dr. Leo Picard, professor of geology at Jersulem's Hebrew University, said that water sources discovered along this route—similar in topography to the Eilat area—indicate that similar sources may exist in Israel's southern region. The deep springs of the oases, combined with the water that flowed down from th snow-covered Sinai peaks, once supported a flourishing settlement.

Most impressive of the oases is Dahab, a natural harbor at the center of the coast. Professor Benjamin Mazar, president of the Hebrew University and Dr. M. Avi-Yonah, both noted archaelogists, said that a fortress and a "veritable jungle" of palm trees were found in the place, which flourished between the Nabatean and Roman - Byzantine periods (100 B.C. to 500 A.D.)

The remains of a dock were discovered, as well as a large Nabatean cemetery, stretching along either side of the Dahab wadi (water stream valley), another indication of a large settlement. That the oasis served as a caravan crossroads is indicated by rock inscriptions discovered during the expedition.

The most astonishing find of this survey was located on a tiny island, devoid of water sources, at the southernmost point of the peninsula. Remains of a settlement dating back to the Roman-Byzantine period were seen at this island, which apparently served as a lighthouse station for passing shipping.

At the island of Tiran, where the group spent very little time, only two stone encampments were found—one dating to the Byzantine period and the other perhaps to the Early Bronze Age. Prof. Picard said that the island's ascending terraces indicate that it has been steadily rising for the last quarter of a million years.

Skunk cabbage gets its name from the odor when it is first bruised by snow and ice in early spring.

Nazi Fortress U.S. Depot

Atomic Ammunition Is Stored in Siegfried Line

BONN (NANA) — The U.S. Army is using sections of Hitler's old Siegfried Line for the storage of live atomic ammunition.

The army sources refuse to pinpoint the nuclear depots for obvious security reasons, but readily admit that "our forces now have so much nuclear stuff in Germany that obviously it would be impossible to rush the atomic warheads from the United States or any other distant point if the 'balloon goes up'

"Nuclear ammunition is beginning to take on the category of conventional ammunition We have to have it at hand, ready for instant use."

The sources disclosed that the United States now has such a plentiful supply of atomic warheads for its tactical infantry weapons that "a battalion of the enemy can be considered as a remunerative nuclear target."

The Siegfried Line, built by Hitler immediately after he defied the Allies by militarizing the Rhineland in 1935, snakes along Germany's western frontier from Belgium across France eastward to the Swiss border It is a chain of underground concrete - and - steel fortresses.

Some Siegfried units, designed by the Nazis for the storage of ammunition and gasoline, are far underground and impregnable to aerial attack. It is these units, the sources indicated, which now house the atomic warheads.

Several years ago the army began the rehabilitation of certain sections of the Siegfried fortifications. The work then was stamped "secret," but later the army said the Siegfried units would be used for "depot purposes"

It was indicated that the units used for nuclear warhead storage are not far from Kaiserslautern, in the Pirmasens area.

The Rhineland - Palatinate, the area in which the nuclear warheads are reported stored, is the most heavily fortified single area in Europe today. Lying west of the Rhine River, it is guarded by half a dozen jet air bases encircling the Kaiserslautern area. Nike anti-aircraft missile batteries are being installed around the perimeter, and it is defended on the ground by several divisions of infantry, including the crack U.S. Second Armored Division, supported by "Atomic Annie" cannon, the "Honest John" rocket, and the Corporal and Matador guided missiles. The Matadors, ramjet craft traveling at trans-sonic speed, have a range of 600 miles

The premises are described as being Lot Number 6636 in the Berry and Mautz's First Addition to the City of Marion, Ohio.
